The U. S. Army and Chorus of 40 voices will present a concert Sunday evening, June 29, at the exercises marking the opening of the observance of the 95th anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg. Anniversary Chairman Robert Hartman announced Wednesday evening at a meeting of the Gettysburg Fire Department at the engine house.

Hartman also reported progress on other activities in connection with the anniversary program, including determination of parade prizes, and activities of the various sub-committees responsible for various phases of the event.

Glenn Weishaar reported a meeting of the planning committee will be held Tuesday evening at 9 o'clock at the engine house to complete plans for the new kitchen to be constructed by the fire department at Recreation Field prior to the Battle Anniversary festival.

Plan Weekly Drills
Equipment Foreman Ray Breighner reported that standard threads have been placed on Fire Truck No. 3 and that the ladder truck is currently undergoing repairs for brakes at a local garage. Raymond Menges reported the ambulance board has set up a new list of members for ambulance duty and that the new list is now being used.

President Harold Culp reported on preliminary studies of a proposal to secure life insurance for all members of the fire department. He said the committee is studying costs and securing legal opinions in connection with the proposal.

Fire Chief Donald Staub announced fire drills will be held each Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock, starting next Tuesday, until the annual solicitation for funds begins in May.

T. J. Collingsworth was granted a one-year leave of absence and two members who were delinquent in dues were dropped from membership. Named to the duty roster for the May meeting were John Murray, Donald Myers, Fred Myers, James Munshour, Robert Neary and Edward Paris.

162 PERSONS AT SPRING DINNER IN NEW OXFORD

One hundred and sixty-two teachers, administrators and friends attended the annual spring banquet of the Adams County Branch of the Pennsylvania State Education Association which was held in the Lower Adams Elementary School in New Oxford Wednesday evening.

Herbert Lauterbach, the assistant executive secretary of the PSEA, congratulated the local branch for 100 per cent membership in both the PSEA and the National Education Association. He said, "It is time for teachers to think for themselves what constitutes better education. The teachers have known for seven years about some of the inadequacies which Sputnik emphasized. The public must put into the classroom enough adequately trained teachers so that each child receives a personal contact and relationship. Each child must be given the opportunity to learn up to the potential of his ability. The public education policy should be an open door for every child to learn to that potential."

Committee At Work
Lauterbach also stated that the PSEA "is not standing idly by juring all this clamor for increased education improvement. A committee of 15 is studying the present arrangement for public education in Pennsylvania and to improve this arrangement wherever possible. The committee is surveying the actual financial facts of school districts and the cost of operations of many school systems. The committee discovered that there are wide differences in schools between facilities and opportunities. The price or cost ranges from $200 per pupil in one district to $300 per pupil in another district to educate the children. To help defray these costs, more aid will be needed from the Commonwealth."

One Killed, 2 Wounded In Plot To Nab Korean Plane

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—A Korean air force plane in flight today and force it to fly to Red North Korea.

The plane's radioman was shot and killed and the pilot and engineer seriously wounded before the interloper was subdued.

The copilot took over the controls of the C46 and landed it in South Korea at Pongrak, 40 miles south of Seoul.

The would-be hijacker, who apparently was not hurt was arrested.

It was the second such incident in two months. On Feb. 16 North Koreans forced the two American pilots of a South Korean civilian airliner to fly into North Korea. Later the Communists released the two Americans and 24 of the 32 others aboard but are still holding the plane and its cargo.

Air force officials identified the captain who tried to take over the plane today only as Choi. They said he was about 30 and a native of North Pyongan province.

BUILDING PLANS OF CHURCH HERE REQUIRE $65,000

At a special congregation dinner meeting Wednesday evening, members of Christ Lutheran Church approved raising $65,000 to build a parish house. May 18 was selected as the date for a visitation among the membership to raise the necessary funds.

Ways of financing the project were outlined by Philip M. Jones who also pointed out the need for expanded facilities for the steady increasing Sunday School enrollment.

The Rev. Herman G. Stuempfle, pastor, presided.

Patient Pleased With Greetings

A news item in The Gettysburg Times several days ago announcing that Paul "Bud" Anzenberger would celebrate his birthday anniversary on Easter Monday brought a flood of messages to the patient in the Maguire Veterans Hospital, Richmond, Va. Mr. Anzenberger was so pleased that he asked the Times to express his thanks publicly because he said he may not get around to answering all the messages for some time. He wrote in part as follows:

"I received so many Easter and birthday greetings the last few days that it's almost impossible for me to let all know how much I appreciate their kindness. You'll never know how happy it made me feel to hear from so many of them.

"Since my name isn't Jack Benny, I'll tell you my correct age. I'm 42 today (April 7)."

GROWERS ARE DINNER GUESTS OF MUSSELMANS

"Agribusiness, a partnership between grower and processor" was the subject of an address by Dr. Amihud Kramer, Department of Horticulture, University of Maryland, at the C. H. Musselman company's annual cherry-raspberry growers' banquet held Wednesday evening at the Biglerville plant cafeteria. The banquet was attended by 300 area fruit growers and wives.

Kenneth S. Alwine, procurement director, was the toastmaster. Ronald Jitzler, bass-baritone soloist, accompanied by Miss Anne Jordan, both of Gettysburg High School, furnished music. Guests included were: William Meyer, Bureau of Markets, Harrisburg; Dr. and Mrs. Frank Hewitson and Dr. Fred Lewis of the Arentsville Experimental Laboratory.

Dr. Kramer pointed out that "Agriculture and business are no longer two distinct entities. A partnership has been formed between the two, known as 'agribusiness' with the common aim of: 1. Producing foods of better quality. 2. Preparing and promoting these foods to gain consumer favor. 3. Stimulating the consumer to spend an appropriate part of her food dollar for these products."

A recognized authority in the field of statistics, Dr. Kramer said that this science, through accurate interpretation of statistical information, can be used to predict what might happen in the future in the light of what has happened in the past.

He stated that this area is "favored in the production of cherries since there is not nearly as (Continued On Page 3)

APPLE RECIPES BEING SOUGHT

Mrs. Grace Garretson, chairman of the Blossom Sunday apple smorgasbord committee, today reminded Adams County's homebakers that recipes of their contributions should be submitted to their regional committee women or to Mrs. Ralph Tyson, Gardeners R. Names of contributors will appear with the printed recipes.

Mrs. Garretson explained that all types of apple dishes are anticipated for the smorgasbord and should not be confined to desserts. Relishes, sauces, breads, salads and fancy apple garnishes are acceptable. The smorgasbord will be an additional attraction to the barbecue chicken dinner to be prepared and served by the county's Poultrymen's Federation.

PARENTS ARE INVITED TO SEE GHS CAFETERIA

With operations apparently back to normal at the Gettysburg High School cafeteria after last week's two-day protest "boycott" by many of the students, Mrs. Alice Lower, the cafeteria manager, invited school directors and parents to visit the cafeteria and see it in operation.

"I would be very happy to explain our cafeteria operation and its problems to any parents or school directors," Mrs. Lower said this morning as she prepared to serve the usual 800 meals in about an hour and a half at noon.

"The school board spent a lot of money last year to install a new steam line so that pupils would not be kept waiting in line so long and we can handle the students very well if they are orderly and considerate," Mrs. Lower said.

She emphasized that no youngsters ever have been refused a second platter if they are ready to pay for it and go to the end of the line to wait their turn so that pupils who have not yet been served are not delayed by earlier diners returning for second platters. She said there is nothing to prevent a pupil from buying two platters on his first trip through the line "and some of them do it," she added.

Children who carry their lunches may buy desserts at the cafeteria but they must be considerate, take their place in line and not crowd around cashiers," she said. There are three cashiers in the cafeteria, one for each food line.

40-VOICE ARMY BAND CHORUS TO SING JUNE 29TH

The U. S. Army and Chorus of 40 voices will present a concert Sunday evening, June 29, at the exercises marking of the opening of the observance of the 95th anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg. Anniversary Chairman Robert Hartman announced Wednesday evening at a meeting of the Gettysburg Fire Department at the engine house.

Hartman also reported progress on other activities in connection with the anniversary program, including determination of parade prizes, and activities of the various sub-committees responsible for various phases of the event.

Glenn Weishaar reported a meeting of the planning committee will be held Tuesday evening at 9 o'clock at the engine house to complete plans for the new kitchen to be constructed by the fire department at Recreation Field prior to the Battle Anniversary festival.

Plan Weekly Drills
Equipment Foreman Ray Breighner reported that standard threads have been placed on Fire Truck No. 3 and that the ladder truck is currently undergoing repairs for brakes at a local garage. Raymond Menges reported the ambulance board has set up a new list of members for ambulance duty and that the new list is now being used.

President Harold Culp reported on preliminary studies of a proposal to secure life insurance for all members of the fire department. He said the committee is studying cost and securing legal opinions in connection with the proposal.

Fire Chief Donald Staub announced fire drills will be held each Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock, starting next Tuesday, until the annual solicitation for funds begins in May.

T. J. Collingsworth was granted a one-year leave of absence and two members who were delinquent in dues were dropped from membership. Named to the duty roster for the May meeting were John Murray, Donald Myers, Fred Myers, James Munshour, Robert Neary and Edward Paris.

162 PERSONS AT SPRING DINNER IN NEW OXFORD

One hundred and sixty-two teachers, administrators and friends attended the annual spring banquet of the Adams County Branch of the Pennsylvania State Education Association which was held in the Lower Adams Elementary School in New Oxford Wednesday evening.

Herbert Lauterbach, the assistant executive secretary of the PSEA, congratulated the local branch for 100 per cent membership in both the PSEA and the National Education Association. He said, "It is time for teachers to think for themselves what constitutes better education. The teachers have known for seven years about some of the inadequacies which Sputnik emphasized. The public must put into the classroom enough adequately trained teachers so that each child receives a personal contact and relationship. Each child must be given the opportunity to learn up to the potential of his ability. The public education policy should be an open door for every child to learn to that potential."

Committee At Work
Lauterbach also stated that the PSEA "is not standing idly by during all this clamor for increased education improvement. A committee of 15 is studying the present arrangement for public education in Pennsylvania and to improve this arrangement wherever possible. The committee is surveying the actual financial facts of school districts and the cost of operations of many school systems. The committee discovered that there are wide differences in schools between facilities and opportunities. The price or cost ranges from $200 per pupil in one district to $300 per pupil in another district to educate the children. To help defray these costs, more aid will be needed from the Commonwealth."

A total of $3,933.10 has been raised so far in the current fund drive being conducted by the Black Walnut Boy Scout District in the area outside Gettysburg, according to reports presented Wednesday evening at a meeting of the district committee at the engine house.

Finance Chairman Daniel E. Teeter and Fund Drive Chairman William Lenz said the campaign for $5,100 is continuing. Present reports show the drive to be "slightly ahead" of last year's campaign at the same time.

The amounts reported by communities were: Arendtsville, $187; Aspers-Bendersville, $117; Biglerville, $229; Bonneauville, $87.50; Cashington-McKnightstown, $92; Fairfield, $436.55; Heidlersburg, $15; Hunters-town, $198; Idaville-Gardners, $100; Littlestown, $804.05; Mummaburg, $24; Orrtanna, $64, and York Springs, $175.

Two Scouts Advance
Dr. W. E. Tilberg, special gifts chairman, announced $1,410 has been raised so far by the special gifts committee.

Hewetson, advancement chairman, announced two Scouts completed requirements for advanced rank at a board of review held immediately prior to the district meeting. They were Barton Olinger, of Post 73, Gettysburg, who advanced to Star Scout rank, and Donald Storm, Troop 77, Bonneauville, who advanced to Life rank.

One Killed, 2 Wounded In Plot To Nab Korean Plane

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—A Korean airman tried to seize a South Korean air force plane in flight today and force it to fly to Red North Korea.

The plane's radioman was shot and killed and the pilot and engineer seriously wounded before the interloper was subdued.

The copilot took over the controls of the C46 and landed it in South Korea at Pyongyang, 40 miles south of Seoul.

The would-be hijacker, who apparently was not hurt was arrested.

It was the second such incident in two months. On Feb. 16 North Koreans forced the two American pilots of a South Korean civilian airliner to fly into North Korea. Later the Communists released the two Americans and 24 of the 32 others aboard but are still holding the plane and its cargo.

Air force officials identified the captain who tried to take over the plane today only as Choi. They said he was about 30 and a native of North P'yongyang province, north of the Communist Korean capital. Part of his family lives in the North, they added.

BUILDING PLANS OF CHURCH HERE REQUIRE $65,000

At a special congregation dinner meeting Wednesday evening, members of Christ Lutheran Church approved raising $65,000 to build a parish house. May 18 was selected as the date for a visitation among the membership to raise the necessary funds.

Last year the church purchased the old Hill property next to the church property on Chambersburg St. Tentative plans are to remodel the two-story brick portion of the present building at the front, and replace the present wooden annex at the rear with a new two-story addition.

Needs for more room for Sunday School classes were presented by Mrs. William H. Teeter representing the committees on fellowship; Dr. R. S. Rosenberger, Sunday School superintendent, and Mrs. Howard Bream, superintendent of the Primary Department.

Architect's drawings for the proposed new parish house were exhibited and explained by William Musser, chairman of the Building committee.

Ways of financing the project were outlined by Philip M. Jones who also pointed out the need for expanded facilities for the steady increasing Sunday School enrollment.

The Rev. Herman G. Stuempfle, pastor, presided.

Patient Pleased With Greetings

A news item in The Gettysburg Times several days ago announcing that Paul "Bud" Anzengruber would celebrate his birthday anniversary on Easter Monday brought a flood of messages to the patient in the Maguire Veterans Hospital, Richmond, Va. Mr. Anzengruber was so pleased that he asked the Times to express his thanks publicly because he said he may not get around to answering all the messages for some time. He wrote in part as follows:

"I received so many Easter and birthday greetings the last few days that it's almost impossible for me to let all know how much I appreciate their kindness. You'll never know how happy it made me feel to hear from so many of them."

"Since my name isn't Jack Benny, I'll tell you my correct age. I'm 42 today (April 7)."

GROWERS ARE DINNER GUESTS OF MUSSELMANS

"Agribusiness, a partnership between grower and processor" was the subject of an address by Dr. Amihud Kramer, Department of Horticulture, University of Maryland, at the C. H. Musselman company's annual cherry-raspberry growers' banquet held Wednesday evening at the Biglerville plant cafeteria. The banquet was attended by 300 area fruit growers and wives.

Kenneth S. Alwine, procurement director, was the toastmaster. Ronald Ditzler, bass-baritone soloist, accompanied by Miss Anne Jordan, both of Gettysburg High School, furnished music. Guests included were: William Meyer, Bureau of Markets, Harrisburg; Dr. and Mrs. Frank Hewetson and Dr. Fred Lewis of the Arendtsville Experimental Laboratory.

Dr. Kramer pointed out that "Agriculture and business are no longer two distinct entities. A partnership has been formed between the two, known as 'agribusiness' with the common aim of: 1. Producing foods of better quality; 2. Preparing and promoting these foods to gain consumer favor; 3. Stimulating the consumer to spend an appropriate part of her food dollar for these products."

A recognized authority in the field of statistics, Dr. Kramer said that this science, through accurate interpretation of statistical information, can be used to predict what might happen in the future in the light of what has happened in the past.

He stated that this area is "favored in the production of cherries since there is not nearly as (Continued on Page 3)

APPLE RECIPES BEING SOUGHT

Mrs. Grace Garretson, chairman of the Blossom Sunday apple smorgasbord committee, today reminded Adams County's homemakers that recipes of their contributions should be submitted to their regional committee women or to Mrs. Ralph Tyson, Gardners R. D., by April 15 for printing. Receipts will be mimeographed and assembled for distribution to dinner guests at blossom headquarters, South Mountain Fairgrounds on Blossom Sunday. Names of contributors will appear with the printed recipes.

Mrs. Garretson explained that all types of apple dishes are anticipated for the smorgasbord and should not be confined to desserts. Relishes, sauces, breads, salads and fancy apple garnishes are acceptable. The smorgasbord will be an additional attraction to the barbecue chicken dinner to be prepared and served by the county's Poultrymen's Federation.

PARENTS ARE INVITED TO SEE GHS CAFETERIA

With operations apparently back to normal at the Gettysburg High School cafeteria after last week's two-day protest "boycott" by many of the students, Mrs. Alice Lower, the cafeteria manager, invited school directors and parents to visit the cafeteria and see it in operation.

"I would be very happy to explain our cafeteria operation and its problems to any parents or school directors," Mrs. Lower said this morning as she prepared to serve the usual 800 meals in about an hour and a half at noon.

"The school board spent a lot of money last year to install a new steam line so that pupils would not be kept waiting in line so long and we can handle the students very well if they are orderly and considerate," Mrs. Lower said.

She emphasized that no youngsters ever have been refused a second platter if they are ready to pay for it and go to the end of the line to wait their turn so that pupils who have not yet been served are not delayed by earlier diners returning for second platters. She said there is nothing to prevent a pupil from buying two platters on his first trip through the line "and some of them do it," she added.

Children who carry their lunches may buy desserts at the cafeteria but they must be considerate, take their place in line and not crowd around cashiers," she said. There are three cashiers in the cafeteria, one for each food line.

UNION TRUCKERS QUIT SUPPORT OF CBS STRIKE

NEW YORK (AP)—Union truck drivers in New York City have withdrawn their support of technicians on strike against the Columbia Broadcasting System.

The walkout of television and radio engineers, cameramen and other technicians went into its third day today.

The technicians got the Teamsters' backing long enough to keep some scenery and props from some television shows.

John J. O'Rourke, president of Joint Council 16 of the Teamsters Union, said during the day that the Teamsters would respect picket lines thrown up by striking CBS employees.

Last night, at a meeting of the local unions affiliated with the Joint Council, a temporary decision was made to drop this support and to take the matter up again if the striking technicians formally request Teamster support.

Programing Improves

Some programs went on without a full complement of scenery and props. CBS said, however, that its programming improved "vastly" over Monday. Makeshift crews of supervisory and executive personnel are handling cameras, microphones and other technical equipment.

The strike also involves the CBS radio network, but its operations have not been hampered.

A live Red Skelton program set for last night from Hollywood was canceled and a kinescope of an earlier Skelton show was substituted—the only program not to go on as scheduled. CBS promised "a normal program schedule" on TV today.

The network has canceled the live presentation of two shows tomorrow night. Climax will offer a filmed repeat. Playhouse 90 will present a filmed drama not previously televised. Both programs originate in Hollywood.

Littlestown HUNTING BIG GAME IN AFRICA IS DESCRIBED

Two hundred forty-nine members of the Littlestown Fish and Game Association, Inc., and guests attended the annual spring banquet of the association held on Wednesday evening at Banker's Restaurant and enjoyed an illustrated talk by Simon B. Rhoads, Selinsgrove.

The speaker, introduced by toastmaster Robert J. Stoner, told about a six-week safari in Africa in 1957, along with two other white hunters and 25 natives, for his second such trip. If the 100 animals bagged on this trip, he shot 37 of them. One of his trophies was a large bull elephant of approximately seven tons, and in describing this particular feat he stated: "I was tired for three days afterwards and no wonder; when we measured the distance we had traveled in tracking, we had covered seven miles, on foot, through brush with the temperature in the nineties, in an hour and a half."

Other trophies included the head-skin, with horns, of a rhinoceros which weighed a ton and a half; the complete skin of a giraffe, the skin and tail feathers of a big ostrich, the hides of two kinds of zebras, that of a lioness, and the heads of different species of the antelope family. He reasoned: "A license to shoot an elephant cost $210, but I got $470 worth of ivory, so it wasn't a bad investment." The pictures and narration were very well received by the sportsmen in attendance.

Present Awards

Prior to the ham meal served by Banker's Restaurant staff, there was group singing of "America" and the invocation by Fred W. King. President Edward H. Leister spoke briefly and introduced the toastmaster. Guests, including A. Kimpfe, Scott Smith, Charles Basso and Clarence W. Sheely, were introduced, and Judge Sheely made a few remarks. A moment of silence was observed in honor and in memory of four members of the association who died during the year: Lloyd Eller, Bernard Eckenrode, John Renner and Edwin Harget.

A number of awards were presented and recipients were Luther G. Myers, Harry Ekdahl, Larry Mesniger, Richard Klunk, Robert Ditzler, Burnell Weaver, Albert Zercher, N. S. Wilson and Michael Collins.

The next regular meeting of the association will be held on Wednesday, May 14, at the Fish and Game Farm.

Donald Becker, state executive vice president, installed the officers: President Attinger; external vice president, Howard Spangler; internal vice president, Thomas Metz; secretary, Jack H. Bartlett; treasurer, Mark Gingrich; state director and chairman of the board, Ross Crouse; board members, Magnus Flaws, Virgil Hartman, Robert Hixon and Robert Welland.

Attinger presented the outgoing president, Magnus Flaws Jr., with a past president's pin and expressed the appreciation of the Junior Chamber for "outstanding service" during the year.

National Officer Speaks
Wallace Heatwole, Waynesboro, Va., national Junior Chamber of Commerce vice president, told the group: "You are doubly fortunate. America's most historic spot is in these fields about your community and the Gettysburg Junior Chamber of Commerce is the heart of the Jaycees in Pennsylvania."

"The Junior Chamber of Commerce is the third largest organization in the world despite the fact that it loses 40,000 men a year because of age, and despite the fact that it calls upon young men, at the very time that is most important to them to found their future, to devote great amounts of time and money to community service."

"Why are young men willing to devote so much time to the Jaycees? Because it offers a chance for community service. Last year those projects ranged from the placing of street signs by one club to the raising of $1,500,000 for a hospital by another club."

"The Jaycees are young men convinced that whatever they can do to make theirs a better community will help make theirs a better state, will make ours a better nation and thus help make a better world.

Magazine Approves Golden Guernsey Milk

Golden Guernsey, Inc., Peterborough, N. H., has announced that their nationally-trademarked Golden Guernsey Milk, distributed locally by Penn Dairies, Inc., has been awarded Good Housekeeping Magazine's Guarantee Seal.

Before awarding the seal, Good Housekeeping gave Golden Guernsey and many of its distributors an extensive series of inspections.

"Community service is a personal thing, its rewards can only be known by those who work at it."

Civic Enterprise

"Jaycees are active because they have a sense of civic enterprise, a determination to make ours an even more sound and stable government for ourselves and our children. We are not a political organization—we back no candidates. But we most certainly stand up for issues. We believe that our nation can best advance only when all citizens are interested in their government, and so we seek to do anything we can to encourage the people of America to exercise their franchise. And if that is political, then we are political."

"And we take stands on issues in which we believe. The great majority of the Jaycees are veterans, but we have gone on record as being American first and veterans second. And the Jaycees were the first organization to endorse selective service, back before World War II, despite the fact that the draft age and the ages of our members coincided."

"Thirdly we are interested in Youth Welfare, we do anything we can do to help youth and give it guidance. And perhaps here we are fortunate that we are a young man's organization and a poor organization. We do not have the money to write a huge check for some agency and tell it to do something for youth. Since do don't have the money, we have to go out and actually do something ourselves about youth welfare, and thus we find there is no more soul satisfying activity than helping children."

great a fluctuation in production from year to year as in other cherry producing areas.

Cherry Crop Doubles

"Nationally cherry production has doubled in the past 20 years: approximately 2,000,000 cases produced in 1939 as compared to approximately 4,000,000 cases in 1957. In Pennsylvania the production shows about the same increase: approximately 250,000 cases in 1939 and approximately 500,000 cases in 1957."

He stated further that agribusiness is currently concerned with satisfying customers so that more cherries can be sold to more people. This is being accomplished through research and improvement of quality by the grower.

In emphasizing research he pointed out that "96 per cent of all food produced in 1957 was grown from varieties not in existence 20 years ago. Improved fertilizers and sprays are being developed. New products are constantly being added with convenience foods leading the way. The percentage increase in all grocery commodities during the past 5 years was 31 per cent while the increase in convenience foods during the same period was 139 per cent."

J. A. Hauser Speaks

In stressing quality improvement by the grower, Dr. Kramer cautioned against too early harvest, pointing out that color, size and quality will improve by delayed harvest, the only limiting factor being a possible increase in defects. He said that work is being done on statistics to predict the possible loss due to the gamble on storms under the delayed harvest plan.

Dr. Kramer said that the prediction for 1957 for fruits and vegetables places them in a favored position with an increase of 60 per cent over current production and that "these possibilities must be exploited by everyone interested in agribusiness."

J. A. Hauser, Musselman Company president, spoke briefly on the company's extensive efforts in advertising and promotion and emphasized the development of new uses for cherries.

Donald E. Horst, horticulturist, outlined a new USDA project on raspberries being developed in Adams County under the direction of Dr. Richard Converse. One hundred virus disease-free plants will be studied over a period of several years to gather information which it is hoped will eventually lead to control measures for virus diseases on raspberry plants.

Urged To Be Slow On Expulsions

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The National Catholic Educational Assn. was told Wednesday that Catholic schools must be charitable toward their "problem" pupils and slow to "expel them into public schools."

The association is holding its annual convention here.

Msgr. William E. McManus, superintendent of schools of the Chicago Archdiocese, gave the advice on problem pupils and declared "our schools must be conducted in the spirit of Christ, Who found so much joy in saving one lost sheep."

UNION TRUCKERS QUIT SUPPORT OF CBS STRIKE

NEW YORK (AP)—Union truck drivers in New York City have withdrawn their support of technicians on strike against the Columbia Broadcasting System.

The walkout of television and radio engineers, cameramen and other technicians went into its third day today.

The technicians got the Teamsters' backing long enough to keep some scenery and props from some television shows.

John J. O'Rourke, president of Joint Council 16 of the Teamsters Union, said during the day that the Teamsters would respect picket lines thrown up by striking CBS employees.

Last night, at a meeting of the local unions affiliated with the Joint Council, a temporary decision was made to drop this support and to take the matter up again if the striking technicians formally request Teamster support.

Programming Improves

Some programs went on without a full complement of scenery and props. CBS said, however, that its programming improved "vastly" over Monday. Makeshift crews of supervisory and executive personnel are handling cameras, microphones and other technical equipment.

The strike also involves the CBS radio network, but its operations have not been hampered.

A live Red Skelton program set for last night from Hollywood was

Cause Of Plane's Crash Is Unsolved

MIDLAND, Mich. (AP)—The cause of an Easter night plane crash in which 47 persons died remained a mystery today as government experts continued a painstaking probe of the wreckage.

State police and FBI investigators worked a few hundred feet from the wreckage, seeking to identify the last eight victims of the Capital Airlines Viscount crash at nearby Tri-City Airport.

Civil Aeronautics Bureau and Civil Aeronautics Administration experts were scheduled to meet today to report on their findings as to the cause of the crash.

The network has canceled the live presentation of two shows tomorrow night. Climax will offer a filmed repeat. Playhouse 90 will present a filmed drama not previously televised. Both programs originate in Hollywood.

BENDERSVILLE COUNCIL MEETS

The Bendersville Borough Council met Monday evening at the residence of Clyde P. Orner, secretary, due to the remodeling and painting of the Bendersville National Bank where their meetings are customarily held.

In order to qualify for the borough's portion of the state tax on gasoline, which is distributed by the county commissioners, and a state appropriation, both of which must be spent in improving the highways of the town, it had previously been decided to spend this money improving Hill St., by widening the curb to curb, removing unnecessary trees and having concrete curbs and sidewalks laid on both sides past the Lutheran Church.

The borough must lay about 1,600 feet of new 6-inch water line this spring in order to connect the new well and buy new well pump. Since so many residents and taxpayers of the town have urged council to install a new 6-inch water line on Church St. before this street work is done, a decision was made to lay a new water line from the square past the Lutheran Church.

The council said that as soon as all water lines have been replaced with 6-inch pipes, the fire insurance rate will drop 50 per cent on all town properties.

Cameron Barbour has been appointed to council filling the vacancy caused by the resignation of Robert Orner, which the council accepted with regret. Members in attendance at the meeting were: James Wright, president; Parker Kuntz, W. B. Delap, Mervin I. Rice, Lloyd Breman and Burgess Leighton C. Taylor.

Name Dean For New Harrisburg College

HARRISBURG (AP)—Dr. John C. Berrier, director of campus activities for Temple University, was named dean of the new Harrisburg area college center at a meeting of the center's directors last night.

The center, which will offer more expanded program of higher education than is currently available in the existing college extension programs, is scheduled to open in the fall.

Dr. Berrier is a graduate of William Penn High School here.

BETHLEHEM, Pa. (AP)—C.A. Major has been renamed president of the Lehigh Valley Railroad for the 12th time.

The annual meeting yesterday also re-elected these directors: Carl W. Badenhausen, James A. McConnell, Henry P. Bristol, Edwin M. Lavine and Tristan Antell.

Major told the stockholders 1958 so far has been unsatisfactory.

ILGWU STUDIES PGMA OFFERS

HAZLETON, Pa. (AP)—The International Ladies Garment Workers Union was expected today to consider proposals submitted by the Pennsylvania Garment Manufacturers Assn. in an attempt to end a five-week strike.

Some 150 PGMA members unanimously endorsed the proposals at a special membership meeting last night.

PGMA officials declined to disclose the terms of the proposals, drawn up in a series of meetings with union leaders, pending action on the offer by the ILGWU.

PGMA President Abraham Glassberg was due in New York today to get the union's reaction to the plan. He said he would call a membership meeting in Hazleton immediately if the proposals are accepted.

At least 8,000 Pennsylvania garment workers are still idle since the ILGWU struck March 5 in the northeastern United States. All but the Pennsylvania workers employed at PGMA plants have ended the strike.

FATALLY CRUSHED

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—James Al-Jei, 34, Philadelphia, was crushed to death last night when the fork-lift truck he was operating at an express company fell on top of him.

Add a little basil to tomato juice about an hour before serving, then strain. Good flavor.

SAYS NEWSMEN MISQUOTED HIM

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP)—Accusing Western newsmen of twisting his words, Soviet Premier Khrushchev declared the U.S.S.R. will help stamp out any revolt that might hit Hungary or its Communist neighbors.

The Soviet boss, whose tank legions crushed Hungary's 1956 uprising, spelled out the Kremlin's position yesterday before 40,000 Hungarians at the coal-mining center of Tata, one of the last rebel strongholds to fall 18 months ago.

Khrushchev charged Western journalists with twisting his statement at Stalin's funeral that if revolt came to Hungary again, the Hungarian Communists should not count on the Soviets for help.

Khrushchev insisted he meant that the Hungarian Reds should run their show in such a way that there would be no new uprising.

Stephen Hopkins, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, was 10 times governor of Rhode Island.

Today there are better tools — indeed, better tools for doing almost everything. Take the matter of paying monthly bills, for example: No longer need a farmer depend on "shanks mare." He can handle the task easily, and in mere minutes — simply by writing checks, and mailing them.

TWENTY YEARS AGO
Council Names Guide Borough
Officer; $50 To Be Peddler's Fee: Gettysburg borough council acted upon a number of important matters at the regular April meeting Monday evening which remained in session for about three and a half hours.

Principal items of business that were handled included:

1. Election of Glenn Guise as a regular police officer to succeed D. J. Wolff, resigned. The post of special officer formerly filled by Guise was abolished.
2. Opening of five bids for 10,000 gallons of oil to be used in street resurfacing work here this summer.
3. Passage of a new ordinance setting at $50 the fee for hawkers and peddlers, aimed at keeping out undesirables and securing some revenue during the 75th battle anniversary celebration here this summer.
4. Agreement to sponsor W.P.A. project for pavement and curb building providing the property owners advance the money for the work by the next meeting of council.

Legion Roster At 234 For Peak:
The activities of the Sons of the Legion, the formation of a Junior Legion drum corps and other matters in connection with the boys organization occupied the greater part of the time at a brief semi-monthly session of the Albert J.
Lentz post No. 202 of the American Legion, Monday evening.

Two new members were added to the rolls bringing the roster to a new high of 234 members.

S. D. Weikert To Serve 3rd Ward
As Councilman: The vacancy that has existed in the third ward delegation to the borough council since early in February when Alfred R.
LeVan resigned was filled Monday evening by the unanimous vote of the eight councilmen who selected Samuel D. Weikert, retired mail carrier, 230 Steinwehr avenue.

Helen R. Bigham Is Bride Of Engineer: Miss Helen R. Bigham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. G.
Bigham, York street, Biglerville, and Frederick Lee Browne, Ithaca, New York, son of Colonel and Mrs. Frederick W. Browne, Chevy Chase, Maryland, were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon in a ceremony performed at the bride's home by the Rev.
D. W. Woods, West Broadway, pastor of the Lower Marsh Creek Presbyterian church.

Belva Wilson Weds H. L. Rudi-

Wilson, 402 York street, became the bride of Howard Lester Rudi-sill, son of Mrs. Jennie Rudsill, also of York street, in a wedding ning in St. James Lutheran church.

The Rev. Spencer W. Augst, pastor of the church, performed the single ring ceremony.

Rev. Fox Named As Delegate To Reformed Synod: The classis of Gettysburg of the Evangelical and Reformed church convened for its fifty-sixth annual sessions at Emanuel church, Abbotstown, on Tuesday.

The report of the retiring president, Elder T. J. Winebrenner of Gettysburg, on the state of the church, reviewed the work that has been accomplished in the various charges during the last year, including the erection of a new edifice for the Church of the Redeemer at Littlestown and the Liepiart Memorial chapel at the Hoffman orphanage.

The election of delegates to the general synod to be held in June at Columbus, Ohio, resulted in the naming of the Rev. Howard Schley Fox, Gettysburg.

Ends Jury Duty: Mrs. Harvey J.
Bollinger, North Washington street, returned home Tuesday evening from Scranton where she served for the last 10 days on a petit jury in a civil case in federal dis-strange influence over us for good is most marked. Just to be in their presence, hardly conversing, is to give us inner calm. The quiet voice, the understanding look from the eyes, and the evidence of faith portrayed, is something that could bless us all, as it does the one who gives it out. Why are there so many people who are restless and who complain of being tired, worn out, and exhausted?

It's because such people have never cultivated an inner calm, and put it into daily use. God helps the one who helps himself.
This is a truism that has lasted a long time. It was meant that all of us should work, just the same as the inhabitants of the outdoor world all have to work and labor for their own, or perish. It is natural for all of these to be self supporting. And if you will take note of it, animals in their world are not easily excited, and have within them their own inner calm, which is noticeable in the protection of their young.

This inner calm, if adhered to the years, will add to one's faith, courage, and confidence. Believers in God inherit this inner calm, and it gives to them spiritual strength that keeps renewing itself. Inner calm is one of the great essentials in life. Without it the entire nervous system suffers.
How greatly each one of us needs the comfort and assurance that this inner calm creates. I like to quote those beautiful lines from Michael Fairless's "Roadmender."
She said: "To have faith is to create; to have hope is to call down blessing; to have love is to work miracles."

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Eternity of Books."

Just Folks

A PLEA
Tears will get into the home soon enough

And sorrow will darken the doors.
So use all your courage and show
all your stuff
Whenever temptation is yours.
The mother will weep and the babies will cry.
And they'll sorrow the long night
hours through,
But don't let them say as the years
travel by
That they've ever suffered for you.

Too soon will the brightness fade
out of their eyes;
Soon enough will they cease to
be young.
The joy of the home is a joy you will prize
When the hearts of your loved ones are young.
So stoop to no folly that lures on
the way.
And be careful, whatever you do,
That down in the future your loved ones shan't say
That they've ever suffered for you.

The weight of the sin of the father is borne
By the mother and babies at home.
By them is the sharp crown of
suffering worn.
As is writ in the sacredest tome.
Grief shall find them too soon;
They shall sorrow some day.
They shall gather the blossoms
of rue.
But don't stoop to folly and shame
on your way.
Don't cause them to suffer for
you.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two top House Foreign Affairs Committee members joined today in predicting committee approval of a foreign aid bill cut far less than in some recent years.

Rep. Morgan (D-Pa.), committee chairman, and Rep. Vorys (R-Ohio) spoke in separate interviews as the House group prepared to start writing an aid bill next week after the Easter recess.

President Eisenhower wants $3-942,000,000 in new aid money for the year beginning July 1. That would be 42 per cent more than the new funds Congress voted last year after chopping more than a billion dollars from Eisenhower's request. The Foreign Affairs Committee cuts have ranged up to a billion in the past.

Finish Hearings
The group has finished extensive hearings on the current bill.
"I think it will come out of the committee with some reduction in the bill," he said. "I don't think the cut will be too deep."

Vorys foresaw "some reduction but nothing like the wholesale slashing we have seen in recent years," and he said he expected the House would go along with a "cautious" cut by its committee.

Other Forecasts
Neither Morgan nor Vorys expects the committee to tack on major policy amendments to the bill this year.

Besides money cuts of various sizes, possible amendments to be offered would ban U. S. assistance to Poland and Yugoslavia, and stop arms shipments to Latin-American dictators.

There may also be moves to channel more foreign aid spending directly into purchases of American goods and to split economic and military aid into separate legislation in the future.

Capacity audiences attended the presentation of "Big Hearted Herbert" a three-act comedy given by the senior class of Biglerville high school in the high school auditorium Tuesday and Wednesday evenings.

Members of the cast included
William Beals, Elizabeth Starnes,
Harold Ecker, Ethel Weikert, Dean
Pink, Josephine Black, Bruce Nary, Renee Shetter, Glenn Heller, Robert Riley, Janet Carbaugh, Thomas Enck and Jean House.

Between acts entertainment was furnished by a girls trio consisting of Renee Shetter, Josephine Murtoff and Evelyn Lawver and a boys' quartet composed of Thomas Enck, Alan Tyson, Bruce Nary and William Miller. Alma Roth rendered a vocal solo. Piano accompaniments were played by Charles

DOOLITTLE JR. IS FOUND DEAD

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—An official report was expected today on the death of Maj. James H. Doolittle Jr., 38, son of the famed general who led the first air strike against the Japanese mainland in World War II.

Doolittle's body was found yesterday in his office. He had been shot in the right temple with a .38-caliber service pistol, found on the floor near his body. Bergstrom Air Force Base officials said.

Col. W. D. Dunham, deputy commander at the Tactical Air Command base here, said an investigation report would show whether the wound was accidental or self-inflicted. He said there was no evidence of foul play.

The major is the son of Lt.
Gen. James H. Doolittle, who led the raid from an aircraft carrier to bomb Japan in 1942. He was in Puerto Rico when he notified his son's death.

The major's wife Shirley said he had not been ill nor did she know of him being despondent.
She said his death was unexpect-

U. S. AIRMAN IS ARRESTED AFTER NEW INCIDENT

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—The U. S. command on Formosa arrested an American airman today after an altercation in which a Nationalist Chinese major suffered a fractured skull.

Mindful of the riot which followed Army acquittal last year of a soldier who killed a Chinese, the American Embassy and the military went all out to avert a furor.

The incident involving A/C
Larry G. Greenway, 21, Butler, Pa., and Maj. Chang Yu-doh occurred last night near a theater in downtown Taipei. Chang was to be operated on today.

Had Been Drinking
A U. S. communique said Greenway had been drinking and allegedly pushed the major, causing him to fall and strike his head against a concrete wall.

Ambassador Everett F. Drum-
wright and Vice Adm. Austin K.
Doyle, the U. S. commander on Formosa, both expressed regrets to top Nationalist officials for the "deplorable incident."

Doyle's office said he had ordered a speedy, thorough investigation so disciplinary action could be taken.

STATE PLANS NEW TRAINING

INDIANTOWN GAP, Pa. (AP)—
Adj. Gen. Anthony J. Drexel Biddle Jr. predicted today that military training in atomic warfare will be conducted on the huge military installation here within a year—possibly on a year-round basis.

The adjutant general said that after Reserve and National Guard training encampments this summer, the program at the base will go on a "pentomic type" setup.

"Under the pentomic plan, the divisional structure of the units will be changed from three to five battle groups in each division," Biddle explained, adding:

"This is a new war concept which is aimed at combating atomic warfare by making the divisions and units more mobile and more powerful."

"Under this plan," he said,
"there is a good chance that the base will be used for Army Reserve and National Guard training both in the winter and the summer."

Under the present system, the base is used by the Reserve and National Guard units only between early spring and late summer.

George Brunet pitched five shutouts for Little Rock in the Southern Assn. last season. This spring Kansas City optioned him to

Littlestown HUNTING BIG GAME IN AFRICA IS DESCRIBED

Two hundred forty-nine members of the Littlestown Fish and Game Association, Inc., and guests attended the annual spring banquet of the association held on Wednesday evening at Banker's Restaurant and enjoyed an illustrated talk by Simon B. Rhoads, Selinsgrove.

The speaker, introduced by toastmaster Robert J. Stoner, told about a six-week safari in Africa in 1957, along with two other white hunters and 25 natives, for his second such trip. If the 100 animals bagged on this trip, he shot 37 of them. One of his trophies was a large bull elephant of approximately seven tons, and in describing this particular feat he stated: "I was tired for three days afterwards and no wonder; when we measured the distance we had traveled in tracking, we had covered seven miles, on foot, through brush with the temperature in the nineties, in an hour and a half."

Other trophies included the head-skin, with horns, of a rhinoceros which weighed a ton and a half; the complete skin of a giraffe, the skin and tail feathers of a big ostrich, the hides of two kinds of zebras, that of a lioness, and the heads of different species of the antelope family. He reasoned: "A license to shoot an elephant cost $210, but I got $470 worth of ivory, so it wasn't a bad investment." The pictures and narration were very well received by the sportsmen in attendance.

Present Awards

Prior to the ham meal served by Banker's Restaurant staff, there was group singing of "America" and the invocation by Fred W. King. President Edward H. Leister spoke briefly and introduced the toastmaster. Guests, including A. Kimpke, Scott Smith, Charles Basso and Clarence W. Sheely, were introduced, and Judge Sheely made a few remarks. A moment of silence was observed in honor and in memory of four members of the association who died during the year: Lloyd Miller, Bernard Eckenrode, John Renner and Edwin Harget.

A number of awards were presented and recipients were Luther G. Myers, Harry Ekdahl, Larry Messinger, Richard Klunk, Robert Ditzler, Burnell Weaver, Albert Zercher, N. S. Wilson and Michael Collins.

The next regular meeting of the association will be held on Wednesday, May 14, at the Fish and Game Farm.

Play safe when you are adding herbs! Start with 1/4 teaspoon of a dried herb for each pint of sauce, gravy, soup, vegetable; use the same amount for each pound of meat, fowl or fish. More can be added after tasting.

Donald Becker, state executive vice president, installed the officers: President Attinger; external vice president, Howard Spangler; internal vice president, Thomas Metz; secretary, Jack H. Bartlett; treasurer, Mark Gingrich; state director and chairman of the board, Ross Crouse; board members, Magnus Flaws, Virgil Hartman, Robert Hixon and Robert Weiland.

Attinger presented the outgoing president, Magnus Flaws Jr., with a past president's pin and expressed the appreciation of the Junior Chamber for "outstanding service" during the year.

National Officer Speaks
Wallace Heatwole, Waynesboro, Va., national Junior Chamber of Commerce vice president, told the group: "You are doubly fortunate. America's most historic spot is in these fields about your community and the Gettysburg Junior Chamber of Commerce is the heart of the Jaycees in Pennsylvania."

"The Junior Chamber of Commerce is the third largest organization in the world despite the fact that it loses 40,000 men a year because of age, and despite the fact that it calls upon young men, at the very time that is most important to them to found their future, to devote great amounts of time and money to community service."

"Why are young men willing to devote so much time to the Jaycees? Because it offers a chance for community service. Last year those projects ranged from the placing of street signs by one club to the raising of $1,500,000 for a hospital by another club."

"The Jaycees are young men com-

Golden Guernsey, Inc., Peterborough, N. H., has announced that their nationally-trademarked Golden Guernsey Milk, distributed locally by Penn Dairies, Inc., has been awarded Good Housekeeping Magazine's Guarantee Seal.

vinced that whatever they can do to make theirs a better community will help make theirs a better state, will make ours a better nation and thus help make a better world.

"Community service is a personal thing, its rewards can only be known by those who work at it."

Civic Enterprise

"Jaycees are active because they have a sense of civic enterprise, a determination to make ours an even more sound and stable government for ourselves and our children. We are not a political organization—we back no candidates. But we most certainly stand up for issues. We believe that our nation can best advance only when all citizens are interested in their government, and so we seek to do anything we can to encourage the people of America to exercise their franchise. And if that is political, then we are political."

"Thirdly we are interested in Youth Welfare, we do anything we can do to help youth and give it guidance. And perhaps here we are fortunate that we are a young man's organization and a poor organization. We do not have the money to write a huge check for some agency and tell it to do something for youth. Since we don't have the money, we have to go out and actually do something ourselves about youth welfare, and thus we find there is no more soul satisfying activity than helping children."

The U. S. Indian School in Phoenix, Ariz., has students from almost twenty tribes.

GROWERS ARE

Cherry Crop Doubles

"Nationally cherry production has doubled in the past 20 years: approximately 2,000,000 cases produced in 1939 as compared to approximately 4,000,000 cases in 1957. In Pennsylvania the production shows about the same increase: approximately 250,000 cases in 1939 and approximately 500,000 cases in 1957."

He stated further that agribusiness is currently concerned with satisfying customers so that more cherries can be sold to more people. This is being accomplished through research and improvement of quality by the grower.

In emphasizing research he pointed out that "96 per cent of all food produced in 1957 was grown from varieties not in existence 20 years ago. Improved fertilizers and sprays are being developed. New products are constantly being added with convenience foods leading the way. The percentage increase in all grocery commodities during the past five years was 31 per cent while the increase in convenience foods during the same period was 139 per cent."

J. A. Hauser Speaks

In stressing quality improvement by the grower, Dr. Kramer cautioned against too early harvest, pointing out that color, size and quality will improve by delayed harvest, the only limiting factor being a possible increase in defects. He said that work is being done on statistics to predict the possible loss due to the gamble on storms under the delayed harvest plan.

Dr. Kramer said that the prediction for 1958 for fruits and vegetables places them in a favored position with an increase of 60 per cent over current production and that "these possibilities must be exploited by everyone interested in agribusiness."

J. A. Hauser, Muselman Company president, spoke briefly on the company's extensive efforts in advertising and promotion and emphasized the development of new uses for cherries.

Donald E. Horst, horticulturist, outlined a new USDA project on raspberries being developed in Adams County under the direction of Dr. Richard Converse. One hundred virus disease-free plants will be studied over a period of several years to gather information which it is hoped will eventually lead to control measures for virus diseases on raspberry plants.

Given Certificates

Certificates of completion of courses at the National Boy Scout Training Center at Menden, N. J., were presented to Dr. Hewelson, Crosby N. Hartzell, Jack Orner, Stanley Rogers, Donald Carver and Paul Evans.

Nine district officials are planning to attend a Region Three institute at Bloomsburg State Teachers College April 18, it was announced. They will be Crosby Hartzell, Timothy Farrell, William Kershner, Ray Shupe, Stewart A. Drum, Donald Carver, Allen Dubbs, Sebastian Hafter and Stanley Rogers.

Within the next few weeks, District Chairman L. V. Stock reported, a new Boy Scout troop at Fountaindale and a new Explorer Post at Boonville will be formed.

Officials from the Black Walnut District will put on several of the courses at the Explorer training session to be held this weekend at Camp Tuckahoe, Rogers reported.

Eighty-five Explorers from the York and Adams County council will attend the two-day training session Saturday and Sunday.

Preliminary plans were also announced for the spring camoore to be held by the district at Bendersville.

Urged To Be Slow On Expulsions

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The National Catholic Educational Assn. was told Wednesday that Catholic schools must be charitable toward their "problem" pupils and slow to "expel them into public schools."

The association is holding its annual convention here.

Msgr. William E. McManus, superintendent of schools of the Chicago Archdiocese, gave the advice on problem pupils and declared "our schools must be conducted in the spirit of Christ, Who found so much joy in saving one lost sheep. Who preached forgiveness of sin. Who welcomed home the prodigal son."

Bullets Wing Bluejays 3-1 Behind More Good Hurling; Host To Dickinson Today

Bob Hulton's Gettysburg College baseball team chalked up its second straight victory here Wednesday afternoon by topping Elizabethtown 3-1 on another fine mound performance by two Bullet hurlers.

Jack McCracken hurled the first seven frames and received credit for the victory. He yielded four hits, whiffed 12 and walked but two. Owen Roizman finished up, striking out two and walking one while not allowing a hit.

Elizabethtown's lone run in the third inning was tainted. With one out, Sese walked. Hershey singled to center and Sese continued all the way home when Frank Capitani threw wild at third in an attempt to cut down the runner.

Capitani Leads Attack
After stranding seven men in the first two innings, the Bullets scored once in the last of the third. Capitani, who led the seven-hit attack with two singles and a double, doubled to deep leftfield. Larry Liedel was safe when his infield fly was allowed to fall untouched. Capitani scored when Gary Long's grounder was booted by Hershey.

The Bullets moved ahead in the fifth. Capitani singled and stole second base. He advanced on Leroy Bream's sacrifice and tallied on Leidel's fly to left.

Brandt Homers
Ronnie Brandt pounded a home-run to deep left center in the bottom of the seventh to account for the final tally.

This afternoon the Bullets, now 2-1, were scheduled to meet Dickinson in the Red Devils, with 10 lettermen, opened their season with the game.

BARONS BOW 4-2 IN OVERTIME

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP) — Hershey Coach Frank Mathers doesn't figure to relax because Springfield, and not Cleveland, will be his Bears' opponent tonight in the opening game of the American Hockey League Calder Cup final playoff.

The Indians, who defeated the favored Cleveland Barons Tuesday night, 4-2, in overtime, to win their semifinal series, arrived here with a fine playing edge and in good shape for the start of the best-of-seven final series.

The Bears have been idle since they clinched their set with the Providence Reds Saturday. All were ready for tonight's action except reserve forward Ed Panagabko, who injured his ankle in Saturday night's game.

Springfield, which will be making its first appearance in the finals in its 17-year league history, has been tough for the Bears all season, despite the local club's

CASUALTY LIST AMONG DIAMOND STARS GROWING

By WILL GRIMSLEY
The Associated Press

The crack of breaking bones is rivaling the crack of home run bats and arnica is becoming an essential commodity among major league baseball teams heading toward their home bases.

Frank Robinson, hard-hitting young left fielder of the Cincinnati Redlegs, was sent spinning to the dirt yesterday when he was hit on the head by a pitched ball. He became the third casualty in as many days of a rather disastrous spring baseball period.

Monday, Harry (Suitcase) Simpson, New York Yankee outfielder, suffered a broken right wrist when he was struck by a pitched ball. He will be lost to his team for three to four weeks.

Other Victims
Tuesday, outfielder Wes Covington of the Milwaukee Braves suffered a wrenched left knee when he collided with Los Angeles catcher Rube Walker at home plate. It's hoped he may be ready for Tuesday opener, but there's no guarantee.

Willie Mays, star center fielder of the New York Giants, got his arm clipped by a pitch which has handicapped his usefulness for a while. Duke Snider, the Los Angeles Dodgers slugger, will not start the season because he is still bothered by the left knee which underwent an operation last winter.

Haywood Sullivan, Boston's rookie catcher, suffered a fracture of the right index finger. Then it was found he had a ruptured spinal disc which required surgery. He probably is lost for the year.

Berra's Hand Split
Yogi Berra, the New York Yankees catcher, has a split hand.

Al Smith, Chicago White Sox outfielder, has an inflamed tendon in his right leg. Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox, the American League's leading hitter, is hobbling around on a bad left ankle.

Williams made his first appearance in a spring game yesterday, but it proved nothing. He went to the plate twice and twice walked as the Red Sox beat Memphis of the Southern Assn. 10-1.

Robinson's injury occurred at Portsmouth, Ohio, where the Redlegs got little comfort from breaking a three-game losing streak with a 2-0 triumph over the Washington Senators.

Loss For Score
He was hit on the face by a pitch thrown by Camillo Pascual. A doctor said he suffered concussion but probably no fracture. He may be out only a few days.

Herb Score, the Cleveland Indian southpaw who almost lost an eye when he was cracked by a line drive last May, was charged with a 6-3 loss to the San Francisco Giants at Harlingen, Tex.

The Braves whipped their old rivals, the Dodgers, again 5-4. The winning pitcher at Dallas was the World Series hero, Lew Burdette. The Philadelphia Phillies banged Sal Maglie 12-8 at Winston-Salem, N.C. The Chicago White Sox crushed St. Louis at Denver 10-6, getting seven runs in the fourth inning. The Kansas City Athletics topped Little Rock 8-3.

In a night game across the border, the Pittsburgh Pirates whipped Mexico City 23-1.

BERMUDIAN JT. DEFEATED 5-0
Bermudian Joint, after two victories, suffered its first defeat Wednesday afternoon when Northern Joint tallied all of its runs in the third inning for a 5-0 victory at Dillsburg.

Runk, Northern hurler, allowed on two singles, one each by Charley Chronister and R. Weigle. Northern's runs came on three hits and four runs.

Next Tuesday Bermudian plays at Big Springs as the Adams County League gets underway.

CAMPANELLA IS REPORTED TO BE MAKING GAINS

By JOE REICHLER
GLEN COVE, N.Y. (AP) — Roy Campanella is still not permitted to have visitors, outside of his family and a few close friends.

His wife Ruthie explained: "The doctor thinks it's best, and so do I. Roy would love to see his friends. He is so eager to talk about baseball and the Dodgers. But the doctor feels it might prove harmful. He shouldn't be talking much and you know Roy. He might flare up with all the excitement. And there's always the danger of catching a cold, a virus."

Mrs. Campanella had arrived at the Glen Cove Community Hospital for the first of her three daily visits. She's been making those visits for the past 10 weeks, ever since Campanella was injured in an automobile accident. He remains paralyzed from the waist down.

Making Progress
The elevator stopped on the third floor. Mrs. Campanella walked down the length of the corridor and stopped outside Roy's door.

"Roy's making progress," she said. "He shows a little bit of improvement almost each day. He still can't do anything for himself but he has become able to move his arms a little and he has begun to have feeling in the lower part of his body."

"His temperatures became normal for the first time yesterday. His appetite has improved. He is just now beginning to feel the taste of food. He still can't feed himself. He doesn't have enough strength in his fingers to hold on to anything."

Almost Immobile
Inside the room, Campanella, his maimed body strapped to a turning rack in his bed, was lying on his back. He was almost completely immobile.

Frank Scott, business agent for many of the major league players and a close friend of the Campanella family, accompanied Ruthie into the room.

The visit was limited to ten minutes. Scott reported that Campy looked just about the same as he did when the 1957 baseball season ended last September. His arms had thinned somewhat.

"That fellow is a revelation," Scott said. "His faith and spirit is the most wonderful thing I've ever seen."

The doctors still cannot say what the future holds in store for Roy. There are hopeful signs.

There is an iron bar attached to the head of Camp's bed. Each day, Roy's fingers are wrapped around the bar and he is asked to try to lift his body. Roy has reached the stage where he can lift the upper region about an inch.

CROWD BOOS AS MACHEN, FOLLEY FIGHT DULL DUEL

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Top-ranking heavyweights Eddie Machen and Zora Folley failed by far to determine a clear-cut title challenger last night in their 12-round draw.

A rematch appears a probability.

Lanky Bill Swift, Folley's manager, shouted, "That decision was the biggest robbery I've ever seen."

He said a protest will be made to the California Athletic Commission but conceded he thought the decision would stand.

Most of the crowd of 11,759 at the Cow Palace boomed lustily at dull action on occasion. They seemed to side with Swift and his 190-pound underdog from Chandler, Ariz.

Boos greeted announcement of the card from the one official who voted for Machen.

A ringside check of sports writers indicated that a 4-1 ratio for Folley over the 191½-pound Machen, of San Francisco, Machen had won all his previous 24 fights.

Close Voting
Under California's 10-must scoring system, Referee Frankie Carter favored Machen 117-116. Judge Jack Downey scored it 115-115 and Judge Fred Apostoli saw Folley ahead 117-115. The Associated Press had Folley 117-116.

Former heavyweight champion Joe Louis opined: "It was a terrible fight. Machen wasn't sharp and Folley weakened."

Machen, rated the No. 1 contender, entered the ring a 2½-1 favorite but in the early rounds seemed baffled by the potent left jab of the No. 2 challenger for Floyd Patterson's crown.

Eddie flurried to gain command in the closing rounds and that brought him from defeat. Even his manager Sid Flaherty conceded this.

Flaherty declared, "To clear the atmosphere these two boys ought to get together again."

"Sure, Folley will fight Machen again," said Swift. He added quickly, "But not in San Francisco."

GIANT CAGE ACE GOES VIOLENT; ISSUES THREAT

MANHATTAN, Kan. (AP) — Jack Parr, 22, star Kansas State basketball player, became suddenly violent yesterday, threatening doctors and nurses until he was subdued several hours later.

Parr, an above-average student and a Sunday school teacher, went berserk in his hospital room, demolishing furniture and slashing his wrists with broken glass. He lost considerable blood but his wounds were not considered dangerous.

The 6-foot-10, 200-pound giant chased hospital attendants off with a chair leg. Tear gas and hospital fire hoses failed to subdue him. Doctors then locked him in.

Taken To State Hospital
Parr finally was talked out by County Atty. Richard D. Rogers and the Rev. Samuel S. George of the First Presbyterian Church, his pastor.

After his wrists were treated, he was given a sedative and taken to the state hospital at Topeka for safekeeping, accompanied by four husky policemen and an ambulance attendant.

Parr went into his frenzy when a nurse attempted to give him medication. He had been hospitalized since Tuesday night.

A senior, Parr would have graduated this spring. His coach, Tex Winter, said the Kansas State center had been under psychiatric treatment "since after last Christmas, but nothing like this has happened before."

On Big 8 Teams
Parr, whose home is in Richmond, Va., has been named to the Big Eight All Conference basketball team for three straight years.

A physician who attended Parr said the tensions of "basketball" had very little, if anything, to do with the present situation. If anything, basketball has helped some in therapy. Had it not been for basketball we might have gone through the "same thing three months ago."

No Starting Jumps In This Cage Game

LARAMIE, Wyo. (AP) — The University of Wyoming and Oklahoma City University played a strange basketball game here. There was no center jump at the game's beginning or at the start of the second half.

The game-opening tipoff was cancelled because Referee Mart Nash called a technical foul against OCU for having a player numbered above 55, a new rule this season.

There was no center jump at the start of the second half because Nash called a technical foul against Wyoming Coach Ev Shelton for beating him in the corridor between halves.

CANNERS TRIP MIDDLETOWN IN TRACK AFFAIR

Biglerville High won its first track victory of the 1958 season by easily defeating Middletown 76½-41½ in a dual meet at Middletown Wednesday afternoon. Hanover, previously scheduled to take part, did not participate.

The Canners, who previously bowed to Cumberland Valley, captured 10 first places. Joe Cicierski winning a pair.

Cicierski took the shot-put with a heave of 39-9½ and the discus with a toss of 119-7.

Scotland, last year's state Class B champs, meet the Canners at Biglerville next Wednesday afternoon at 3:30.

GHS Track Squad Meets Waynesboro Here Friday; Bubbles Host Ball Team

Two Gettysburg High School athletic squads will open their spring sports schedules Friday afternoon, the Warrior track team meeting Waynesboro here in a dual meet at 3:30, and the baseball team playing at Bolling Springs.

Coach George Forney has but two lettermen in his 68 candidates for track.

Kenny Keefer, the South Penn Conference 180 low hurdles record holder with a mark of 21.1 seconds, and George McFeaters, mile and half mile runner, are the lone lettermen. Both are seniors.

Another lettermen from last year, Earl Little, has transferred to baseball this season. James Staiger, a Junior, who has shown promise in the high jump, will be ineligible for at least two meets.

A group of 29 freshmen are included among the candidates and several could well gain regular berths. At least eight will perform Friday when a special freshman 880-relay and mile run in addition to the varsity events.

"Temporary" Starters
Definite assignments for events are problematical at present, due mostly to the lack of sufficient outdoor work, and Coach Forney pointed out many who face Waynesboro may be replaced later, which should be an incentive for all candidates.

Other meets on the Warrior schedule include: April 16, Chambersburg, home; 19, Shippensburg State Teachers College invitation; 25, Hanover, Steelton at Hanover; May 2, Biglerville, home; 10, South Penn Conference, at Dickinson College; 17, District 3, at Lancaster; 24, state PIAA, at Penn State.

Candidates for the squad follow: Seniors — Dietz Borowski, Fred Pilsinger, Kenny Keefer, Sam Long, George McFeaters, Ed Nowicki, Fred Smith, Sid Steinhour, Harvey Wagner, Ronald McClellan.

Legion Club Seeks To Amend Charter

Articles of amendment to the charter of the American Legion Club of Gettysburg have been filed with the county probate court. The proposed change is scheduled to be one of the matters before the court at its session Monday.

The amendment, recently adopted at a meeting of the Gettysburg American Legion Club, changes the bylaws to permit any honorably discharged veteran to become a member of the club and use the facilities of the American Legion home on Baltimore St.

At present the club's charter provides that only members of the Albert J. Lentz Post of the American Legion may become members of the club. Since membership in the American Legion is permitted only to those veterans who served within certain dates involving wars, the change in the club regulations will permit veterans who served in the armed forces since the Korean War, or between World War II and the Korean War or between World War I and World War II to become members of the club.

STRIKE OF TV RADIO CREWS IN FOURTH DAY

NEW YORK (AP)—The Columbia Broadcasting System has tentatively turned down a city mediator's offer to help end the strike of CBS radio and TV technicians. CBS noted that the walkout is nationwide and not local.

There was no indication of any agreement between CBS and the striking International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers as 1,300 union members remained off the job for the fourth day.

Meanwhile, shows are being handled by more than 300 supervisory and executive personnel who received a production training course last fall.

CBS has stayed on the air with most of its TV programs. Tonight two live shows — "Climax and Playhouse 90" — will be replaced by film dramas.

Await U. S. Action
The CBS radio network also is involved in the strike but its programs have not been affected.

Harold A. Felix, city labor commissioner, sent telegrams to CBS and Local 1212 of the union offering his services as mediator.

William C. Pitts Jr., vice president of labor relations for CBS, replied through a spokesman that, since the strike was nationwide and affected seven cities from coast to coast, the network was awaiting possible action by federal mediators and the union's headquarters in Washington, D.C.

However, Pitts, in replying to the plea of three other broadcast unions for resumption of negotiations, said: "I assure you that we are not lightly accepting an impasse. I am ready to cooperate in any effort to bring about a proper resumption of consideration of the problems."

Have Different Versions

The union and CBS have given different versions of the cause of the walkout. The network claims a wage issue is the cause of the dispute, and says the union turned down a wage boost bringing base

Wrong Turn Meant Visiting 1,742 Homes

ZANESVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Someone turned the wrong valve and 1,743 homes here had callers.

Gas was to be shut off in an existing line while a new line was tied in. Instead, someone turned the valve that shut off gas to homes in southwestern Zanesville.

Fuel gas company crews had to visit each of the 1,743 homes to shut off all gas outlets before the gas line could be re-opened. Then they had to go back and turn on the outlets again.

DRAFT BOARD QUITS

BRYAN, Ohio (AP)—Declaring they are "not very proud to be members of the Selective Service System," the three men who compose Williams County's draft board have walked out, charging intervention into induction cases by state Selective Service officials.

The three are Fred Williams and Don E. Zeller of Bryan, and Carl C. Hart of Montpelier.

WILBERFORCE, Ohio (AP)—Within the next 10 or 15 years, two-thirds of the nation's Negro population will be living north of the Mason-Dixon Line, Dr. Willard Johnson, director of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, said at a conference on human relations at Central State College, a Negro school.

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Public Utility Commission yesterday dismissed a request that it take over regulation of rates charged by the Bell Telephone Co. for advertising in its classified directories.

pay to $185 a week, a $10 raise over current salaries.

The union has said job security and clarification of various working agreements are at the root of the walkout. A major issue, the union says, is over video taping—with tape replacing motion picture film in many TV programs and thus eliminating some film processing jobs.

NO CHEERING RED DEPARTURE

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev returned to Moscow today after an eight-day visit to Hungary. Despite rainy weather which kept many other planes away, his TU104 jetliner landed only 43 minutes late.

In his farewell to Budapest Khrushchev asserted that the Hungarian working class will defend Communist rule in Hungary against any attempt to overthrow it.

"We leave with the conviction," Khrushchev said from a red-draped rostrum on the airport runway, "that the Hungarian working class, which has revolutionary traditions and is led by the Hungarian Communist party, will fulfill its task."

"If anyone again makes an attempt against the Revolution, the Hungarian working class will show that the dictatorship of the proletariat exists and will remain in Hungary."

A crowd of several thousand saw the Soviet chieftain off with considerably more enthusiasm than on his arrival. There was no prolonged applause or cheering, however.

Khrushchev said his delegation and Hungary's Communist leaders had reached "complete unity of views on every question of domestic and foreign policy."

"There were no differences between us," he asserted, adding that the Soviet Union would remain a faithful ally, "as desired by the Hungarian people."

Murdered Woman's Body Is Discovered

BURLINGAME, Calif. (AP)—The badly decomposed body of a woman about 30 years old was found yesterday with her wrists bound and a pair of panties stuffed down her throat.

Three boys stumbled on the body, nude except for a black checkered coat in which it was wrapped. It was covered with brush in a eucalyptus grove near Skyline Drive on the San Francisco Peninsula.

Police Lt. Jack Price estimated the body had been there "about a year."

A laboratory test was scheduled to determine when the unidentified woman died.

SYMPHONY AN EPIC

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Leopold Stokowski said he was deeply moved by the power of Shostakovich's 11th Symphony, which he performed in a two-day Western Hemisphere premier. "I feel it is an epic of the soul of the Slavic peoples," he said. The Russian symphony was dedicated to the Bolshevik uprising of 1905.

Today's Talk

INNER CALM

There are certain people whose strange influence over us for good is most marked. Just to be in their presence, hardly conversing, is to give us inner calm. The quiet voice, the understanding look from the eyes, and the evidence of faith portrayed, is something that could bless us all, as it does the one who gives it out. Why are there so many people who are restless and who complain of being tired, worn out, and exhausted? It's because such people have never cultivated an inner calm, and put it into daily use. God helps the one who helps himself. This is a truism that has lasted a long time. It was meant that all of us should work, just the same as the inhabitants of the outdoor world all have to work and look after their own, or perish. It is natural for all of these to be self supporting. And if you will take note of it, animals in their world are not easily excited, and have within them their own inner calm, which is noticeable in the protection of their young.

This inner calm, if adhered to over the years, will add to one's faith, courage, and confidence. Believers in God inherit this inner calm, and it gives to them spiritual strength that keeps renewing itself. Inner calm is one of the great essentials in life. Without it the entire nervous system suffers. How greatly each one of us needs the comfort and assurance that this inner calm creates. I like to quote those beautiful lines from Michael Fairless's "Roadmender." She said: "To have faith is to create; to have hope is to call down blessing; to have love is to work miracles."

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Eternity of Books." Protected, 1958, by The George Matthews Adams Service

Just Folks

A PLEA

Tears will get into the home soon enough
And sorrow will darken the doors,
So use all your courage and show
all your stuff
Whenever temptation is yours.
The mother will weep and the
babies will cry,
And they'll sorrow the long night
hours through,
But don't let them say as the years
travel by
That they've ever suffered for
you.

Too soon will the brightness fade
out of their eyes;
Soon enough will they cease to
be young.

The joy of the home is a joy you
will prize
When the hearts of your loved ones are wrung.
So stoop to no folly that lures on
the way
And be careful, whatever you do,
That down in the future your
loved ones shan't say
That they've ever suffered for
you.

The weight of the sin of the father
is borne
By the mother and babies at home.
By them is the sharp crown of
suffering worn.
As is writ in the sacredest tome.
Grief shall find them too soon:
they shall sorrow some day,
They shall gather the blossoms
of rue:
But don't stoop to folly and shame
on your way.
Don't cause them to suffer for
you.

PREDICT OK ON BIG SLASH IN FOREIGN AID

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two top House Foreign Affairs Committee members joined today in predicting committee approval of a foreign aid bill cut far less than in some recent years.

Rep. Morgan (D-Pa.), committee chairman, and Rep. Vorys (R-Ohio) spoke in separate interviews as the House group prepared to start writing an aid bill next week after the Easter recess.

President Eisenhower wants $3,942,082,000 in new aid money for the year beginning July 1. That would be 42 per cent more than the new funds Congress voted last year after chopping more than a billion dollars from Eisenhower's request. The Foreign Affairs Committee cuts have ranged up to a billion in the past.

Finish Hearings

The group has finished extensive hearings on the current bill. "I think it will come out of the committee with some reduction in the bill," he said. "I don't think the cut will be too deep."

Vorys foresaw "some reduction but nothing like the wholesale slashing we have seen in recent years," and he said he expected the House would go along with a "cautious" cut by its committee.

Other Forecasts

Neither Morgan nor Vorys expects the committee to tack on major policy amendments to the bill this year.

Besides money cuts of various sizes, possible amendments to be offered would ban U. S. assistance to Poland and Yugoslavia, and stop arms shipments to Latin-American dictators.

There may also be moves to channel more foreign aid spending directly into purchases of American goods and to split economic and military aid into separate legislation in the future.

Capacity audiences attended the presentation of "Big Hearted Herbert" a three-act comedy given by the senior class of Biglerville high school in the high school auditorium Tuesday and Wednesday evenings.

Members of the cast included William Beals, Elizabeth Starnes, Harold Ecker, Elmer Weikert, Dean Fink, Josephine Black, Bruce Nary, Renee Shetter, Glenn Heller, Robert Riley, Janet Carbaugh, Thomas Enck and Jean House.

Between acts entertainment was furnished by a girls trio consisting of Renee Shetter, Josephine Murttoff and Evelyn Lawver and a boys' quartet composed of Thomas Enck, Alan Tyson, Bruce Nary and William Miller. Alma Roth rendered a vocal solo. Piano accompaniments were played by Charles L. Yost and Miss Alma Roth. Miss H. Louise Creasy directed the play.

Assistance Board Moves Offices To Eagle Hotel: Public assistance board offices for Adams county consolidated today in new quarters in the Eagle Hotel building. The staffs and equipment were moved from 100 York street, the former state relief board's local headquarters, and from an office on the first floor front of the court house.

DOOLITTLE JR. IS FOUND DEAD

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—An official report was expected today on the death of Maj. James H. Doolittle Jr., 38, son of the famed general who led the first air strike against the Japanese mainland in World War II.

Doolittle's body was found yesterday in his office. He had been shot in the right temple with a .38-caliber service pistol, found on the floor near his body, Bergstrom Air Force Base officials said.

Col. W. D. Dunham, deputy commander at the Tactical Air Command base here, said an investigation report would show whether the wound was accidental or self-inflicted. He said there was no evidence of foul play.

The major is the son of Lt. Gen. James H. Doolittle, who led the raid from an aircraft carrier to bomb Japan in 1942. He was in Puerto Rico when notified of his son's death.

The major's wife Shirley said he had not been ill nor did she know of him being despondent. She said his death was unexpected.

U. S. AIRMAN IS ARRESTED AFTER NEW INCIDENT

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—The U.S. command on Formosa arrested an American airman today after an altercation in which a Nationalist Chinese major suffered a fractured skull.

Mindful of the riot which followed Army acquittal last year of a soldier who killed a Chinese, the American Embassy and the military went all out to avert a furor.

The incident involving A/IC Larry G. Greenway, 21, Butler, Pa., and Maj. Chang Yu-doh occurred last night near a theater in downtown Taipei. Chang was to be operated on today.

A U.S. communiqué said Greenway had been drinking and allegedly pushed the major, causing him to fall and strike his head against a concrete wall.

Ambassador Everett F. Drumwright and Vice Adm. Austin K. Doyle, the U.S. commander on Formosa, both expressed regrets to top Nationalist officials for the "deplorable incident."

Doyle's office said he had ordered a speedy, thorough investigation so disciplinary action could be taken.

Recovering From Heart Attack

BURLINGTON, N.C. (AP)—North Carolina Sen. W. Kerr Scott is reported showing signs of recovery from a heart attack.

The 62-year-old Democrat suffered a coronary thrombosis yesterday while he and Mrs. Scott were getting drivers' license renewals.

The senator was taken to the Alamance General Hospital. Scott served as governor in 1949-52. Two years later he successfully ran for the unexpired term of Sen. Willis Smith, who died of a heart attack. Scott later won a regular six-year term, which expires Jan. 3, 1961.

Nearly 3½ inches of rain fell in Tallahassee, Fla., in a 24-hour period.

Ike Says Leaders Of Both Parties Would Be Consulted Before Any Tax Cut Action

WASHINGTON (AP)—In reply to the first question put to President Eisenhower at his Wednesday press conference about his views on a possible tax cut, the chief executive noted that leaders of both parties are to be consulted before the administration takes any tax action.

He said that Secretary of the Treasury Anderson has promised to consult with Democratic as well as Republican congressional leaders before any tax cut.

Then the president went on to say he sees nothing in the unemployment figures that brings the situation to a critical point and requires a decision on taxes at the moment.

3rd In Three Weeks

It was Eisenhower's third meeting with newsmen in as many weeks—and the first time he has held news conferences three weeks in a row since last August.

The discussion ranged over many topics:

DEFENSE—Eisenhower said vigorously that he doesn't care how many in Congress may oppose his defense reorganization plan—he intends to fight for it with every means at his command.

That will include, he added, going to the nation on television just as frequently as the TV networks will grant him time, if that should become necessary.

Eisenhower also said it makes no sense at all for anyone to fear that the reorganization plan would concentrate so much power in the hands of the secretary of defense as to make him a czar.

Among safeguards against any such development, he said, are the Joint Chiefs of Staff, Congress itself, and the National Guard organizations.

Eisenhower predicted the reorganization plan will, as he put it, go swimmingly once it is well understood.

CONGRESS—The President said that Congress, now at the halfway mark in the session, still has not acted on certain legislation which he regards as vital.

He listed what he termed critical appropriation bills, including the defense spending measure; extension of the Reciprocal Trade Act for five years, and the administration's $3,942,000,000 foreign aid program.

More

NUCLEAR TESTS—Eisenhower said he would seriously consider calling a halt to U.S. nuclear weapons tests—after the scheduled summer series—if he is convinced then that this country's scientists have obtained all the information they need regarding the making of so-called clean nuclear weapons.

Eisenhower emphasized that he first would have to be convinced that the scientists had all the information they needed.

PRICES—Asked for comment on the fact that prices continue to climb despite the recession, Eisenhower said he has been puzzled about that, too, and did some research. He added that he found that price hikes during a business slump are not what he termed an unusual phenomenon. On the other hand, that situation seems to be normal rather than abnormal, Eisenhower said.

But he added that he still hopes that such price hikes will not be recurring.

At another point Eisenhower was asked what people could do to make the "recession recede." His reply was: Buy. Buy—anything.

A newsman reminded Eisenhower that at a March 2 news conference he gave the same advice—buy widely. But yesterday, the reporter said, Secretary of the Treasury Anderson urged people to put their money in savings bonds as an anti-inflation move.

With a smile, the President replied he had not been talking last month about buying carelessly. He meant people should buy selectively, the President added.

Eisenhower added that he thinks people are becoming a little disenchanted with some items of merchandise being rammed down their throats. He said manufacturers should give a little thought to what people need and want, rather than to what the manufacturers think they should have.

ATTACKS—A reporter told Eisenhower criticism of him and attacks on his programs seem to have increased during recent months. The newsman asked whether Eisenhower ever felt like hitting back—like taking a retaliatory poke.

With a slow grin, the President remarked that he did a great deal of boxing in his youth—and that nowadays it would be only natural for him to want to hit back at critics.

Turning serious then, he went on to say that his main concern in such circumstances is to preserve the dignity of the presidency. He said he always will speak out for things he believes are right. But he added it would not be good business for him to call people some of the names they are calling him.

POLITICS—Asked whether he cared to evaluate the chances of Republican candidates in this year's congressional election campaigns, Eisenhower replied with a shrug. Then he added that he believes the Republicans will win if they work hard, and intelligently.

INTERNATIONAL TRADE —

of Asia is necessary. He said any country such as Japan will be watching to see whether the United States raises a trade wall against it. The Japanese, he said, have to make a living by getting materials from other countries, and by manufacturing and selling products.

The United States has to make an effort to see that Japan is given an opportunity to make a living, Eisenhower said.

SUMMIT—Eisenhower said he has heard no mention by anyone that administration efforts to arrange a summit conference with Russia might be helpful in this year's political campaigns in this country.

Polls he has seen, Eisenhower went on, indicate a somewhat negative attitude on the part of the American public with respect to a summit conference. He said one poll showed that 30 per cent of those questioned in two states just didn't know where they stood on the summit conference.

As to whether the current business slump in this country might endanger the U.S. political position abroad, Eisenhower said any continuous decline would be harmful. But he added that we don't look for the decline to be continuous.

KILLIAN REPORT—Eisenhower said he thinks it might be possible for his science adviser, Dr. James R. Killian Jr., to make public parts of a report on detection of nuclear tests.

The President made it clear he was speaking of sections of the report which would not violate security in any manner.

DENVER (AP)—An elderly man, applying for admission at Denver General Hospital, looked puzzled when Admissions clerk Carolyn Schepker asked, "What was your state of birth?" The oldtimer scratched his head and answered, "Nude, I guess."

SHOOTS ARTIST; SMASHES ART

BALTIMORE (AP)—Artist Leo R. Jonas, 49, was shot in the thigh in his studio last night.

Police later arrested Irving Macklin, 60, at his home in suburban Pikesville, Md. He was charged with shooting with intent to kill, carrying a deadly revolver and firing the gun within the city limits.

In the studio, police found: 1. A smashed painting which the artist had done of Macklin's wife, Fannie, 44.

2. A broken bust of the wife which Jonas had not completed. Macklin is the owner of a chain of beauty parlors. Jonas was treated for the bullet wound at Maryland General Hospital.

Cooking Is Fun

By Cecily Brownstone

Associated Press Food Editor
Canned pears are often a good buy these days and, accompanied by a foamy sauce, take on new interest. We particularly enjoy the pears heated, but some of our testers like them best chilled. Both ways of serving are given in the following recipe.

Pears With Foamy Sauce
Ingredients: 1 can (1 pound and 13 ounces) Bartlett pears, juice of 1 large orange, 1/4 cup apricot preserves, 1 egg, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1/2 teaspoon grated lemon rind, 1 tablespoon lemon juice.
Method: Drain pears. Measure 1 cup pear syrup into a medium-sized saucepan; simmer 2 minutes. Add orange juice and apricot preserves; stir and simmer until very hot. Beat egg in medium-sized deep bowl until thick and pale colored. Beat egg mixture over low heat; cook and stir constantly for 2 minutes. Remove from heat; stir in vanilla. To serve dessert hot, put drained pear halves in a 10-inch skillet; sprinkle with lemon rind and lemon juice. Cover and place over very low heat until hot through. Serve heated pears with hot foamy sauce. To serve dessert cold, chill drained pears and foamy sauce in separate containers. At serving time sprinkle pear halves with lemon rind and lemon juice; beat sauce to make foamy again and serve with pears. Makes 4 to 8 servings, depending on whether 1 or 2 pear halves are used for each portion.

FRIDAY FARE
Broiled Shrimp Baked Potatoes
California Celery Crusty Rolls

CALIFORNIA CELERY
Ingredients: 3 cups thin celery crescents, 1/4 cup thin strips green pepper, 1 tablespoon instant minced onion, 1 tablespoon butter or margarine, 1/4 cup water, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon cornstarch, 1 tablespoon cold water, 1 tablespoon soy sauce.
Method: Have celery crescents 1/4 to 1/2 inch thick; place in 10-inch skillet (that has a dome cover) with green pepper, onion, butter, 1/4 cup water and 1/4 teaspoon salt. Simmer, covered, just until tender-crisp — about 8 minutes. Meanwhile stir cornstarch, 1 tablespoon cold water and soy sauce together until smooth. Pour over cooked celery in skillet and stir until the slight amount of liquid in pan thickens. Serve at once. Makes 4 servings. Seasonings may need to be adjusted because soy sauce differs in strength.

SATURDAY SUPPER
Spaghetti And Meat Balls
Salad Bowl Hard Rolls
Coconut Cake Beverage
SPAGHETTI AND MEAT BALLS
Ingredients: 1 pound finely ground chuck beef, 1/2 cup fine dry bread crumbs, 1 egg, 1 medium-sized onion finely grated (pulp and juice), 2 tablespoons minced parsley, 1/4 teaspoon salt, pepper, 2 tablespoons olive oil, 1 large onion (finely chopped), 2 cloves garlic (crushed), 1 small green pepper (finely chopped), 1 teaspoon dried crushed basil, 1 can (1 pound and 12 ounces) tomatoes with added strained tomato included in the pack, spaghetti, grated Parmesan cheese.
Method: Mix beef and bread crumbs at one side of medium-sized mixing bowl. Beat egg on other side of bowl with a fork until yolk and white are combined. Mix egg with meat, grated onion, 1 tablespoon of the parsley, 1 teaspoon of the salt and pepper to taste. Form into 1 to 20 small balls. Heat olive oil in 12-inch deep skillet until very hot. Add meat balls and brown on all sides; remove meat. Add chopped onion, crushed garlic and chopped green pepper to oil in skillet. Cook slowly, stirring often, about 10 minutes. Stir in remaining 1 tablespoon parsley, remaining 3/4 teaspoon salt, pepper to taste, basil and the tomatoes. Cook slowly about 15 minutes. Add meat balls and continue to simmer, covered, about 30 minutes more. Serve with spaghetti and grated Parmesan. Makes 6 servings.

THE BRIDE COOKS SUPPER
Rice With Chicken And Bacon
Salad Bowl Bread Tray

RICE WITH CHICKEN AND BACON
Ingredients: 3 to 4 slices lean bacon, 1/2 cup finely diced onion (1 medium size), 2 cups (packed down) steamed rice, diced meat from 2 roast chicken drumsticks, 1 tablespoon (or more) soy sauce.
Method: Cook bacon in 9- or 10-inch skillet, over low heat until crisp. Remove bacon and crumble. Add onion to bacon fat in skillet and cook slowly, stirring often, until golden colored. Add rice, crumbled bacon, chicken and soy sauce. Stir well and reheat, tossing with a fork until very hot. Serve at once. Makes 2 very large servings.

ONE-MINUTE FACIAL
A one-minute facial can perk up the complexion in an emergency. Dampen a washcloth in hot water, press it against your face. Apply old cream from forehead to neck-line and massage it firmly into your warm, damp skin. Count to 15 while you work fingers, the flat of your hands up and out in broad smoothing motions. Remove cream with tissues. Splash your face with icy cold water. Pat dry with a towel.

Notes From A DOCTOR'S Notebook

By DOROTHY V. WHIPPLE, M.D.
AP Newsfeatures

Winn, a big German shepherd dog, was lying apparently asleep on the front steps. "His" baby, Stuart, had been playing with his tricycle on the sidewalk, but had wandered back into the yard, leaving the tricycle right in the middle of the walk. Harry came down the street, picked up the tricycle and put it on the grass. Winn opened one eye, watched the intruder without moving, then slowly got up, walked over to Harry and gave him a good nip on the leg.

Harry howled and both mothers were on the spot in a flash. Words flew between them.

Of course a dog who might do this should be behind a fence, but how seriously hurt was Harry and how much danger was there. You could see the tooth marks in Harry's leg, and there was a little trickle of blood.

Rabies Spread By Bite
A dog bite is no more serious an injury than any other cut or puncture wound—provided the dog is healthy. In this case the dog was healthy and Harry was not seriously injured. The thing you worry about after a dog bite is whether or not the dog has rabies.

Rabies is a very serious disease and can be transmitted by a bite of an animal with the disease. You cannot always tell by looking at a dog whether or not he is coming down with rabies. He can transmit the disease before he shows any symptoms. But if the dog remains in good health for two weeks after he has bitten a human, it can be assumed that he was free from rabies at the time of the bite. If the dog should die, or be killed during this two-week period, it is necessary that his body (and especially his brain) be examined by a competent veterinarian (state health departments will always make this examination free of charge). Should the dog be found to have rabies, there is still time to treat the person who was bitten. The treatment consists of injections of rabies serum; at a minimum it takes 14 shots—one every day for two weeks.

Rabies in man is a terrible disease, and once contracted is almost always fatal. So it is worth a lot of trouble to avoid it—even 14 shots.

The most troublesome sort of a dog bite is one from a stray dog who

EASY TO LURE MEN TO HELP WASH DISHES

Associated Press Women's Editor

If you want to lure the man of the house into the kitchen at dishwashing time, try making him a handsome he-man apron from some of the decorative printed linen dish towels available these days.

Some of the best textile designs of the market are turning up on dish towels nowadays and it's simple as falling off a log to use them in many ways—for aprons, place mats, cafe curtains or even casual skirts.

The modern dish towel, in fact, is disappears and cannot be watched for two weeks. Then it is necessary to give the shots because you don't know whether there was danger or not.

If you or your child gets bitten by a dog, keep track of that dog for two weeks. If he is all right at the end of that time, you are safe.

And, if you own a dog like Winn, you owe it to the community to keep him behind a fence.

almost too pretty to use for drying dishes, so local sewing center experts suggest you take them to your sewing machine to whip up items for gifts, bazaars or for your own use.

Made In No Time
A couple of gay, decorative aprons can be made in practically no time—one for your husband, one for you. His apron is made by simply sewing cotton twill tape on the dish towel to serve as neckband and ties. Choose a bold design of green and white scallions on a black ground for this one—he'll be so proud of it he'll be meek as a lamb when you lead him to the dishes in the sink.

For your apron you might choose a dish towel with a striking corner-on-the-cob design. Pleat across the long way of the towel and secure with a double row of stitching. Knot the ends of a length of white cotton cord and whip across the top of the apron. That's all there is to it.

Special Cotton Blend
The newest dish towels, made of a special blend of cotton, rayon and linen, measures 20 by 30 inches. This is a perfect size for kitchen cafe curtains, place mats and various other things, including aprons. Outstanding designs include red strawberries on a pink background, colorful vegetables in baskets and many other bright and whimsical motifs.

Of course, you can always use the towels to dry dishes, too. But for directions for making bazaar items from dish towels write to: Kitchen Towels, Post Office Box 415, Grand Central Post Office, New York, N. Y.

TREE CLIMBER

GRANITE PARK, Utah (AP) — Walter R. Van Moorlebeem thinks his cat must like getting rescued from dangerous perches. It climbed 45 feet to the top of a tall tree and wouldn't come down until Van Moorlebeem returned home to coax it down. It was his second rescue of the animal in as many days.

STRIKE OF TV RADIO CREWS IN FOURTH DAY

NEW YORK (AP)—The Columbia Broadcasting System has tentatively turned down a city mediator's offer to help end the strike of CBS radio and TV technicians. CBS noted that the walkout is nationwide and not local.

There was no indication of any agreement between CBS and the striking International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers as 1,300 union members remained off the job for the fourth day.

Meanwhile, shows are being handled by more than 300 supervisors and executive personnel who received a production training course last fall.

CBS has stayed on the air with most of its TV programs. Tonight two live shows — Climax and Playhouse 90 — will be replaced by film dramas.

Await U. S. Action
The CBS radio network also is involved in the strike but its programs have not been affected.

Harold A. Felix, city labor commissioner, sent telegrams to CBS and Local 1212 of the union offering his services as mediator.

William C. Pitts Jr., vice president of labor relations for CBS, replied through a spokesman that, since the strike was nationwide and affected seven cities from coast to coast, the network was awaiting possible action by federal mediators and the union's headquarters in Washington, D.C.

However, Pitts, in replying to the plea of three other broadcast unions for resumption of negotiations, said: "I assure you that we are not lightly accepting an impasse. I am ready to cooperate in any effort to bring about a proper resumption of consideration of the problems."

Have Different Versions
The union and CBS have given different versions of the cause of the walkout. The network claims a wage issue is the cause of the dispute, and says the union turned down a wage boost bringing base

Wrong Turn Meant Visiting 1,742 Homes

ZANESVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Some one turned the wrong valve and 1,743 homes here had callers.

Gas was to be shut off in an existing line while a new line was tied in. Instead, someone turned the valve that shut off gas to homes in southwestern Zanesville.

Fuel gas company crews had to visit each of the 1,743 homes to shut off all gas outlets before the gas line could be re-opened. Then they had to go back and turn on the outlets again.

DRAFT BOARD QUILTS

BRYAN, Ohio (AP)—Declaring they are "not very proud to be members of the Selective Service System," the three men who compose Williams County's draft board have walked out, charging intervention into induction cases by state Selective Service officials.

The three are Fred Williams and Don E. Zeller of Bryan, and Carl C. Hart of Montpelier.

WILBERFORCE, Ohio (AP)—Within the next 10 or 15 years, two-thirds of the nation's Negro population will be living north of the Mason-Dixon line, Dr. Willard Johnson, director of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, said at a conference on human relations at Central State College, a Negro school.

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Public Utility Commission yesterday dismissed a request that it take over regulation of rates charged by the Bell Telephone Co. for advertising in its classified directories.

pay to $185 a week, a $10 raise over current salaries.

The union has said job security and clarification of various working agreements are at the root of the walkout. A major issue, the union says, is over video taping—with tape replacing motion picture film in many TV programs and thus eliminating some film processing jobs.

Cooking Is Fun

By Cecily Brownstone

Associated Press Food Editor

Canned pears are often a good buy these days and, accompanied by a foamy sauce, take on new interest. We particularly enjoy the pears heated, but some of our testers like them best chilled. Both ways of serving are given in the following recipe.

Pears With Foamy Sauce

Ingredients: 1 can (1 pound and 13 ounces) Bartlett pears, juice of 1 large orange, 1/4 cup apricot preserves, 1 egg, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1/2 teaspoon grated lemon rind, 1 tablespoon lemon juice.

Method: Drain pears. Measure 1 cup pear syrup into a medium-sized saucepan; simmer 2 minutes. Add orange juice and apricot preserves; stir and simmer until very hot. Beat egg in medium-sized deep bowl until thick and pale colored. Beating constantly, slowly pour hot syrup mixture over egg. Return to saucepan over low heat; cook and stir constantly for 2 minutes. Remove from heat; stir in vanilla. To serve, dessert hot, put drained pear halves in a 10-inch skillet; sprinkle with lemon rind and lemon juice. Cover and place over very low heat until hot through. Serve heated pears with hot foamy sauce. To serve dessert cold, chill drained pears and foamy sauce in separate containers. At serving time, sprinkle pear halves with lemon rind and lemon juice; heat sauce to make foamy again and serve with pears. Makes 4 to 8 servings, depending on whether 1 or 2 pear halves are used for each portion.

Broiled Shrimp Baked Potatoes

CALIFORNIA CELERY

Ingredients: 3 cups thin celery crescents, 1/4 cup thin strips green pepper, 1 tablespoon instant minced onion, 1 tablespoon butter or margarine, 1/4 cup water, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon cornstarch, 1 tablespoon cold water, 1 tablespoon soy sauce.

Method: Have celery crescents 1/4 to 1/2 inch thick; place in 10-inch skillet (that has a dome cover) with green pepper, onion, butter, 1/4 cup water and 1/4 teaspoon salt. Simmer, covered, just until tender—about 8 minutes. Meanwhile stir cornstarch, 1 tablespoon cold water and soy sauce together until smooth. Pour over cooked celery in skillet and stir until the slight amount of liquid in pan thickens. Serve at once. Makes 4 servings. Seasonings may need to be adjusted because soy sauce differs in strength.

SATURDAY SUPPER

Spaghetti And Meat Balls
Salad Bowl Hard Rolls
Coconut Cake Beverage

SPAGHETTI AND MEAT BALLS

Ingredients: 1 pound finely ground chuck beef, 1/2 cup fine dry bread crumbs, 1 egg, 1 medium-sized onion finely grated (pulp and juice), 2 tablespoons minced parsley, 1 1/2 teaspoons salt, pepper, 2 tablespoons olive oil, 1 large onion (finely chopped), 2 cloves garlic (crushed), 1 small green pepper (finely chopped), 1 teaspoon dried crushed basil, 1 can (1 pound and 12 ounces) tomatoes with added strained tomato included in the pack, spaghetti, grated Parmesan cheese.

Method: Mix beef and bread crumbs at one side of medium-sized mixing bowl. Beat egg on other side of bowl with a fork until yolk and white are combined. Mix egg with meat, grated onion, 1 tablespoon of the parsley, 1 teaspoon of the salt and pepper to taste. Form into 1 to 20 small balls. Heat olive oil in 12-inch deep skillet until very hot. Add meat balls and brown on all sides; remove meat. Add chopped onion, crushed garlic and chopped green pepper to oil in skillet. Cook slowly, stirring often, about 10 minutes. Stir in remaining 1 tablespoon parsley, remaining 3/4 teaspoon salt, pepper to taste, basil and the tomatoes. Cook slowly about 15 minutes. Add meat balls and continue to simmer, covered, about 30 minutes more. Serve with spaghetti and grated Parmesan. Makes 6 servings.

THE BRIDE COOKS SUPPER

Rice With Chicken And Bacon
Salad Bowl Bread Tray
Fruit With Spongecake Beverage

RICE WITH CHICKEN AND BACON

Ingredients: 3 to 4 slices lean bacon, 1/2 cup finely diced onion (1 medium size), 2 cups (packed down) steamed rice, diced meat from 2 roast chicken drumsticks, 1 tablespoon (or more) soy sauce.

Method: Cook bacon in 9- or 10-inch skillet, over low heat until crisp. Remove bacon and crumble. Add onion to bacon fat in skillet and cook slowly, stirring often, until golden colored. Add rice, crumbled bacon, chicken and soy sauce. Stir well and reheat, tossing with a fork until very hot. Serve at once. Makes 2 very large servings.

ONE-MINUTE FACIAL

A one-minute facial can perk up the complexion in an emergency. Dampen a washcloth in hot water, press it against your face. Apply old cream from forehead to neck—line and massage it firmly into your warm, damp skin. Count to 15 while you work fingers, the flat of your hands up and out in broad smoothing motions. Remove cream with tissues. Splash your face with icy cold water. Pat dry with a towel.

Notes From A DOCTOR'S Notebook

By DOROTHY V. WHIPPLE, M.D.
AP Newsfeatures

Winn, a big German shepherd dog, was lying apparently asleep on the front steps. "His" baby, Stuart, had been playing with his tricycle on the sidewalk, but had wandered back into the yard, leaving the tricycle right in the middle of the walk. Harry came down the street, picked up the tricycle and put it on the grass. Winn opened one eye, watched the intruder without moving, then slowly got up, walked over to Harry and gave him a good nip on the leg.

Harry howled and both mothers were on the spot in a flash. Words flew between them.

Of course a dog who might do this should be behind a fence, but how seriously hurt was Harry and how much danger was there. You could see the tooth marks in Harry's leg, and there was a little trickle of blood.

Rabies Spread By Bite

A dog bite is no more serious an injury than any other cut or puncture wound—provided the dog is healthy. In this case the dog was healthy and Harry was not seriously injured. The thing you worry about after a dog bite is whether or not the dog has rabies.

Rabies is a very serious disease and can be transmitted by a bite of an animal with the disease. You cannot always tell by looking at a dog whether or not he is coming down with rabies. He can transmit the disease before he shows any symptoms. But if the dog remains in good health for two weeks after he has bitten a human, it can be assumed that he was free from rabies at the time of the bite. If the dog should die, or be killed during this two-week period, it is necessary that his body (and especially his brain) be examined by a competent veterinarian (state health departments will always make this examination free of charge). Should the dog be found to have rabies, there is still time to treat the person who was bitten. The treatment consists of injections of rabies serum; at a minimum it takes 14 shots—one every day for two weeks.

Rabies in man is a terrible disease, and once contracted is almost always fatal. So it is worth a lot of trouble to avoid it—even 14 shots.

The most troublesome sort of a dog bite is one from a stray dog who

Associated Press Women's Editor

If you want to lure the man of the house into the kitchen at dishwashing time, try making him a handsome he-man apron from some of the decorative printed linen dish towels available these days.

Some of the best textile designs of the market are turning up on dish towels nowadays and it's simple as falling off a log to use them in many ways—for aprons, place mats, cafe curtains or even casual skirts. The modern dish towel, in fact, is disappearing and cannot be watched for two weeks. Then it is necessary to give the shots because you don't know whether there was danger or not.

If you or your child gets bitten by a dog, keep track of that dog for two weeks. If he is all right at the end of that time, you are safe.

And, if you own a dog like Winn, you owe it to the community to keep him behind a fence.

almost too pretty to use for drying dishes, so local sewing center experts suggest you take them to your sewing machine to whip up items for gifts, bazaars or for your own use.

Made In No Time

A couple of gay, decorative aprons can be made in practically no time—one for your husband, one for you. His apron is made by simply sewing cotton twill tape on the dish towel to serve as neckband and ties. Choose a bold design of green and white scallions on a black ground for this one—he'll be so proud of it he'll be meek as a lamb when you lead him to the dishes in the sink.

For your apron you might choose a dish towel with a striking corner-on-the-cob design. Pleat across the long way of the towel and secure with a double row of stitching. Knot the ends of a length of white cotton cord and whip across the top of the apron. That's all there is to it.

Special Cotton Blend

The newest dish towels, made of a special blend of cotton, rayon and linen, measures 20 by 30 inches. This is a perfect size for kitchen cafe curtains, place mats and various other things, including aprons. Outstanding designs include red strawberries on a pink background, colorful vegetables in baskets and many other bright and whimsical motifs.

Of course, you can always use the towels to dry dishes, too. But for directions for making bazaar items from dish towels write to: Kitchen Towels, Post Office Box 415 Grand Central Post Office, New York, N. Y.

TREE CLIMBER

GRANITE PARK, Utah (AP)—Walter R. Van Moorlebeem thinks his cat must like getting rescued from dangerous perches. It climbed 45 feet to the top of a tall tree and wouldn't come down until Van Moorlebeem returned home to coax it down. It was his second rescue of the animal in as many days.

LARGE CROWD SEES COMEDY

A large crowd attended the presentation of "Gertie Goes Plain" in the social hall of Redeemer's United Church of Christ on Tuesday evening. The Pennsylvania Dutch comedy was presented by the young people of St. James' Lutheran Church, York, under the sponsorship of Redeemer's Ladies' Aid Society.

A brief business meeting of the Aid Society followed the play in charge of Mrs. Edward B. Geiman, president. It was decided that the Aid will sponsor a room at the Hanover unit of Homewood Church Home for the Aged. They decided to place the altar flowers in the church on Sunday, April 27, in memory of deceased members of the society. A note of thanks was read from Mrs. Richard M. Pheasant. It was announced that the recent Easter market was a big success. Reports were heard from Mrs. Donald C. Arbogast, secretary, and Mrs. Paul F. Crabbs, treasurer. Mrs. Calvin M. Sentz Sr., Mrs. Wilbur A.

Bankert and Miss Blanche Troxell were appointed to serve as hostesses at the next meeting on Tuesday, May 13, in the church social hall.

At the close of the business, refreshments were served by Mrs. Mary Miller, Mrs. Bertha Shull and Mrs. Dorothy Ruggles.

An auction will be held in connection with the next meeting of the WCSO on Tuesday, May 13. Members of the New Oxford WCSO will be invited guests. The hostess committee consists of Mrs. Helen Barton, Mrs. Lottie Mellett, Mrs.

Olive Randall, Mrs. Lois Sells and Mrs. Jean Harner.

Mrs. Ruth Streig, vice president, was in charge of the business at the meeting of the Ever Willing Sunday School Class of St. John's Lutheran Church, held on Tuesday evening at the church. On Tuesday at 7 p.m., Village Chevrolet will meet the Eagles Auxiliary and Sonny's Lunch will bowl Stites' Jewelers. The winners will roll off at 7 p.m.

The Rev. William C. Karns, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church, has announced that the confirmation class pictures are now available and may be seen at the church. Members of the class should view them there and give their orders to the pastor by Sunday evening. A special program will be held at the meeting of the Luther League at 6 p.m. Sunday to welcome the members of the confirmation class. There will be a film and refreshments will be served. The Ladies Aid Society of St. John's Church will have a refreshment stand at the public sale of Mrs. Edwin Harget on April 26 and women of the congregation are asked to take pies, cakes and homemade candies at that time.

IKE PLANS GOLF OVER WEEKEND

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower plans to fly to Augusta, Ga., tomorrow for a weekend of golf and rest.

Press secretary James C. Hagerty said the trip is contingent on good weather in Augusta, and on whether the President is able to clear his desk of work in time.

Eisenhower's tentative plans call for departure aboard his private plane, Columbine III, about 9 a.m. for the two-hour trip.

Eisenhower would return to Washington either Sunday evening or early Monday morning.

He is scheduled to throw out the first baseball at the season's opening game here Monday afternoon between the Washington Senators and the Boston Red Sox.

Carpet Traffic Paths Removed

Do you have a traffic path? It's that beat down section of carpet that has received the heaviest wear.

To preserve the "new all over" look, those traffic paths must be eliminated, so apply Blue Lustre carpet cleaner with an easy to use long handle brush. The colors will spring out fresh and bright with the nap open and fluffy to blend with the unsoiled sections of your carpet.

One-half gallon of Blue Lustre cleans three 9 x 12 rugs.

Churchill Cancels
United States Visit

LONDON (AP) — Sir Winston Churchill, still recovering from an attack of pneumonia and pleurisy last month, has canceled his trip to the United States.

The 83-year-old statesman's secretary said last night Churchill informed President Eisenhower "with much regret he has felt obliged to cancel his visit."

Churchill and his wife were to have gone to the United States late this month. He returned from the French Riviera last week and is now at his country home in Kent.

Lukens Steel Reports Net Income Dropped

COATESVILLE, Pa. (AP)—Lukens Steel Co., a specialty maker, reports net income in 12 weeks ended March 22 was not quite half what it was in the record setting period a year ago.

It was the first glimpse at the profits picture in the ailing steel industry in the first quarter.

Lukens' net income in the 12-week period, only a week and a day from the full quarter, was $1,470,230, equal to $1.54 a share, compared with $3,385,498, or $3.53 a share a year earlier. Sales this year were $24,631,807 compared with $32,405,892 last year.

The company's board of directors at its annual meeting on Tuesday declared a dividend of 50 cents, payable May 15 to stockholders of record April 30.

WAXAHACHIE, Tex. (AP)—C. H. Richardson, 70, founder of Northhome Furniture Industries, Dubuque, Iowa, died Tuesday. Three of his sons operate furniture plants in Dubuque, Waxahachie and Lancaster, Pa.

WILL FURLOUGH 275 EMPLOYEES

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP)—Bell Telephone Co. has notified the Federation of Telephone Workers of Pennsylvania it will furlough some 275 male employees in the state April 28, the union reported last night.

A Federation spokesman said Bell indicated more layoffs would follow if the present economic trend continues downward. The layoff would affect 100 employees in Western Pennsylvania and between 150 and 175 in the eastern half of the state.

The union spokesman said Bell intends to notify those affected by April 28. The majority of those being laid off, the union said, are employees with less than two years of credited service.

The spokesman said the company rejected a union proposal to regulate the work load by placing employees with less than two years of service on part-time work instead of laying them off.

TRIES OUT NEW DEVICE FOR CANCER TEST

By RENNIE TAYLOR
AP Science Reporter

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A three-minute test for cancer, which flashes red for danger and green for safety, is being tried out here.

More than 4,000 persons have been tested so far. The test's originator estimates it is wrong in no more than 3 to 5 per cent of the cases.

Dr. Ludwig von Bertalanffy, who developed the procedure, told about its early trials in a meeting with science writers touring research projects sponsored by the American Cancer Society.

Located New Cancer

Among 700 women suspected of having cancer of the cervix, or neck, of the womb, the test found 58 cases indicating cancer and 57 of these turned out to have malignancies, Dr. Bertalanffy said.

Among 1,100 other women picked at random, who showed no outward indication of cervix cancer, it identified four as having malignancies and eight others as being suspected of the disease.

Dr. Bertalanffy, who did the work at Mt. Sinai Hospital here, said the procedure is inexpensive and can be used in a doctor's office. In expert hands, an examination can be made in three minutes, he said.

Red Danger Signal

The tests, however, yields only what physicians call provisional judgments. But it can single out the suspicious cases and leave the final decision for established procedures.

A smear is taken on a glass slide. This may come from the womb, or from sputum from the lungs, or from materials in other parts of the body. Most of Dr. Bertalanffy's tests were made on cervical smears.

The smear is stained with a dye called acridine orange. This dye fluoresces under ultra violet light. When smears show an unusual amount of red in the cells, Dr. Bertalanffy said, it indicates presence of either a cancer or a benign tumor. This is the signal for further examination.

Curtail Purchase Of Steel For Autos

NEW YORK (AP) — The auto industry handed steel mills an extra big helping of bad news this week, the Iron Age, national metalworking weekly, said Wednesday.

Detroit has told steelmakers it will be buying only limited tonnage for the balance of the 1958 model year, Iron Age asserted. It said this means that steel companies can expect little help from Detroit before August or September when the auto makers start buying steel for production of 1959 models.

Inventories in the hands of steel consumers are at rock bottom, Iron Age said, and from a steel shipments standpoint, some sources believe the turning point has been reached.

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Commissioners from 19 Western Pennsylvania counties say their salaries are too low, particularly in comparison with those of Common Pleas Court judges.

In fourth-class counties, judges receive $20,000 a year and commissioners $8,000. The commissioners expressed their dissatisfaction on Tuesday at a regional meeting of the Pennsylvania State Assn. of County Commissioners.

More than 65,000 prisoners of war and civilian deportees in World War II have been repatriated during the past six years.

Nominate President Of Pa. Women's Club

HARRISBURG (AP) — Mrs. Earle A. Brown of Pittsburgh on Tuesday was nominated for the presidency of the Pennsylvania Federation of Women's Clubs.

Her's was the only name submitted for the position to be filled at the federation's convention here June 11-13. The nominating committee said, however, that other nominations may be made from the convention floor.

Others nominated include: Mrs. James A. Muffy, Lewisburg, as a vice president at large; Mrs. Ronald M. Hay, Grove City, as secretary; Miss Miriam McConnell, Shamokin, for North Central District vice president; Mrs. H. Clair Henry, Brookville, for Northwest District vice president.

C. T. BUCK EXPIRES

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Charles T. Buck, 73, former circulation manager for newspapers in Pennsylvania and Washington, D. C., died Tuesday night of cancer in Hahnemann Hospital.

Buck's last position was circulation manager for the Chester Times. He retired in 1950 after 15 years in the post. He also worked in similar capacities for the Washington Herald, the Lancaster New Era, the Scranton Tribune, and the Wilkes-Barre Times-Leader.

Politics

LEBANON, Pa. (AP) — The Democratic organization candidates today began campaigning for the May 20 primary election.

Mayor David L. Lawrence of Pittsburgh, who is seeking the gubernatorial nomination, and Miss Genevieve Blatt, seeking reelection as secretary of internal affairs, planned a meeting with the Lebanon County Democratic committee. They are to appear at a Democratic rally and dinner to night in Lancaster.

Gov. Leader, who has been endorsed for the U.S. Senate by the party leaders, was to speak at a reception and dinner in Altoona later today.

Meanwhile, John F. Davis, former Reading mayor who is running independently for the Democratic lieutenant governor nomination, implied there was politics involved in the timing of the announcement yesterday of his dismissal from an $83 a week post as investigator for the State Labor and Industry Department.

Lt. Gov. Roy E. Furman, who is opposing Lawrence in the primary and also has a complete slate of running mates to oppose the other organization candidates, promised in a statement yesterday to look into the problems of the small businessman if he is elected.

elected.

Urges More Interest

NEW CASTLE, Pa. (AP) — Arthur T. McGonigle, organization candidate for the Republican nomination for governor, said today businessmen "must begin to take politics seriously."

McGonigle told a meeting of Republicans he entered politics "after my own family had pointed out to me that I was doing nothing but criticize my state government as operated by (Governor) George Leader."

The Reading pretzel manufacturer said the job of governor is for a man of sincerity, integrity, faith and good management.

"And I believe," he added, "that the job of governor of Pennsylvania is not for the kind of man whose sloppy, inept and wasteful administrative practices have helped bring the biggest spending orgy of all time to Harrisburg. Politics does not have to become the dirty business it has been under the Leader administration."

"As a small businessman," he said, "I am convinced that we in business must begin to take politics seriously or run the risk of turning over our daily lives, and those of our children, to the profit-for-politics cult and ruin of us all."

Deplores Lack Of Aid To Some Schools

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — City Welfare Commissioner Randolph E. Wise says it is "unjust discrimination" to withhold federal and state aid from parochial and church schools.

Wise made this comment in a speech before the 55th annual convention of the National Catholic Educational Assn.

The keynote address was given on Tuesday by the Rev. Joseph T. Timiney, dean of St. John's University Law School. He called for more federal aid to church schools for bus transportation, textbooks, free lunches and other items.

Stassen brought his campaign for the Republican gubernatorial nomination back to Pittsburgh today.

On the agenda were several meetings with Allegheny County Republican groups. He is slated for appearances in Armstrong and Lawrence counties tomorrow and Beaver County Friday.

In a television speech in Philadelphia last night, Stassen said there is a direct link between Democrats and unemployment.

"Pennsylvania has one of the most deeply entrenched political machines, and it also has some of the most severe unemployment," he said.

BUSINESS GREW WHEN BOSS MADE OWN DECISIONS

BURBANK, Calif. (AP) — A shapely, red-haired widow owns a million-dollar-a-year business that started to prosper, she says, only after she began making her own decisions.

Joan Castle Joseph bosses a plant that manufactures costume jewelry sold in swank stores across the nation and small parts used in all U. S. and Canadian aircraft.

The company is Joseph-Hollywood and it grew out of the late founder's manufacture and rental on costume jewelry to the movie industry, still a sideline, Joan Castle entered the picture in 1938 when her husband-to-be—expanding with a commercial line of costume jewelry—hired her as his secretary.

She Married Boss
Miss Castle took over the jewelry and rental departments as defense orders swamped the plant early in World War II. In 1942 she married her boss, Eugene Joseph. But business sagged after the war and in 1948 Joseph died in the crash of his private plane.

His widow, who had retired to rear their son, returned to the business. "I took a course in blueprint reading and learned a few engineering terms," she says. The Korean War brought a rush of new orders.

"The first 18 months, whenever I faced a problem I'd ask myself, 'What would Joseph do?'" she recalls. "Then I realized this was silly, that I must stand on my own feet."

Began To Grow
From that moment on, the business began to grow."

It grossed $915,000 in 1956; last year, she estimates, a million.

Mrs. Joseph, 38, believes not only in self reliance but in positive thinking. And she always keeps a Bible handy.

"It's so much easier with God's help," she says.

This may surprise guests who see her worldly, sophisticated side at the mammoth cocktail party she throws every Christmas season in a smart Beverly Hill restaurant. There were some 700—business associates, wives, friends and a few Hollywood performers—at the latest blowout.

The attractive hostess greeted them in a form-fitting, low-cut gown of kelly green. Glistening on her skin at the point of what movie censors call cleavage was a tiny star-shaped white sapphire, glued on.

A spotlight, installed for the occasion at Mrs. Joseph's direction, shone on her from over the door. Why this display?

"I'm a ham," she explains with a smile.

At the plant she dresses more conservatively in tailored suits. In the manner of big business she is addressed by her initials "J. C." by the top echelon of her 125 employees.

WILL FURLOUGH 275 EMPLOYEES

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP)—Bell Telephone Co. has notified the Federation of Telephone Workers of Pennsylvania it will furlough some 275 male employees in the state April 28, the union reported last night.

A Federation spokesman said Bell indicated more layoffs would follow if the present, economic trend continues downward. The layoffs would affect 100 employees in Western Pennsylvania and between 150 and 175 in the eastern half of the state.

The union spokesman said Bell intends to notify those affected by April 28. The majority of those being laid off, the union said, are employees with less than two years of credited service.

The spokesman said the company rejected a union proposal to regulate the work load by placing employees with less than two years of service on part-time work instead of laying them off.

Servants And Problems Plentiful For American Housekeeper In Johannesburg

EDITOR'S NOTE: Agnes Heinzerling is the wife of Lynn Heinzerling, chief of the Johannesburg, South Africa, bureau of The Associated Press. In the story below, she tells what it's like to keep house in a city that's only a dot on a map for most Americans.

By AGNES HEINZERLING

JOHANNESBURG (AP) — This is supposed to be the housewife's paradise — a place where servants are plentiful and cheap and you can drop everything to gad around and attend to a man's tea. But I am beginning to wonder. When we rented a furnished, ranch-type house in a Johannesburg suburb, Solomon and Johannes came into our lives. They came with the house although their wages and upkeep are not included in the rent. They are Africans of the Mopedi tribe and were described by the house owner as "one and a half boys" although both are over 21. Johannes is married.

They live in a one-room, brick structure on the property. Johannes is the "inside boy," who cleans the house, waits on tables and helps with the cooking. Solomon is the "half boy" in the owner's description. He works in the garden, shines the shoes, cleans the car and helps with the dishes.

Earns $16 A Month
Johannes earns 16 dollars a month and his room and board. Solomon makes 12 dollars a month, room and board. They are hard-working and cheerful, but mystified by modern appliances. If the cleaner is to be used, we must do it ourselves.

There is a lot of talk about burglars in this city. You don't put out the dog and lock the door here. You lock the door, keep the dog inside and turn on the burglar alarm. The burglar alarm is a buzzer in the bedroom which sounds ominously whenever any window or door in the house is opened. And, in our house, the routine is to lock not only the outside doors, but all doors leading even remotely into the sleeping quarters.

Knocks On Window
Once this ritual is completed, not even Johannes or Solomon can get into the house. So at 6:30 a.m., Johannes knocks on the bedroom window. The "master" then goes and unlocks the kitchen door. Johannes starts the coal fire to heat the bath water and makes the early morning tea.

From years of practice, Johannes and Solomon immediately began referring to my husband and my 12-year-old son, Larry, as "Master" — "Yes, Master," "No, Master." We are gradually persuading them to change this to "Mister" for my husband and to call Larry by his name.

The houses here are built with hot, summer days in mind. Usually there is no basement and almost never a central heating system. Fireplaces and electric heaters provide warmth in winter. July, August and September as a result can be somewhat trying, particularly the nights.

Schooling can be difficult if you are inclined to go along with the local snobbishness about schools. For English speaking boys, you are told, the only schools are King Edward and St. John's. But King Edward and St. John's are enrolled to capacity and strings have to be pulled to put a new student into them.

Government schools and other private schools are said to be excellent, although crammed to the doors. We were able to find a private school within a bicycle ride of our home and Larry is very happy as the 45th member of his class there.

Received A "Caning"
He did cause some consternation when he came home one day and reported he had received a "caning." In this country, the lash is still administered to convicted criminals in some cases and we had visions of a horrible scene. It developed, however, that Larry had been rapped across the knuckles "for playing the fool at sports."

Department stores cannot compare with those in the United States although there are some excellent shops here. There are store prices for comparable goods are higher than at home. But fruits and vegetables are cheaper.

Fruits And Vegetables
The change in diet has not been such as to cause any difficulties. Fresh fruits and vegetables are available in abundance. There is a wide range of canned goods. I miss mostly the cake mixes, laundry soaps and the frozen foods available at home.

Social life is sometimes a problem. The ladies here, with their housework and cleaning in the hands of thousands of African servants for better or worse, like to invite you to tea parties at 11 a.m. A favorite Sunday festivity

OLD WAR CLUBS ARE ON DISPLAY

Items ranging from primitive war clubs to models of modern day guided missiles; rifles and muskets from matchlocks to those used in World War II; knives, sabers, cutlase, bayonets, relics of the Carlisle Indian Industrial School, maps and documents from the early days of Carlisle Barracks, and hundreds of other historic items are to be seen at the Hessian Guardhouse Museum at the Carlisle Barracks.

Open to the public free of charge every Wednesday and Sunday afternoon from one until five o'clock, the museum has attracted thousands of visitors from the 48 states and numerous foreign nations since its opening in April.

Language is no barrier since English is spoken almost universally. The South Africans are warm-hearted, friendly people and mostly delighted to see American visitors. The Afrikaners especially see a great similarity between the "trek" of their forefathers and the westward push of our pioneers and react accordingly.

Originally built as a powder magazine in 1777 by Hessian prisoners of war captured at the Battle of Trenton during the Revolutionary War, the building which houses the museum is the oldest of this historic installation, one of the nation's oldest active military posts. With walls of native limestone over six feet thick, the museum building consists of three large rooms and four small cells which were used to confine prisoners from the days of the Carlisle Indian Industrial School up until the 1930's.

The display scheme generally traces the evolution of weaponry, from the wooden war club used by South Seas natives, through Indian clubs, tomahawks, swords, pistols and rifles to present day firearms. Additionally visitors will find one room devoted to relics of the Carlisle Indian Industrial School, and another small room with a display of maps of Carlisle Barracks from its earliest times up to the present day.

CLOSE SHAVE
PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) — A $50,000 mustache came through an airplane crash undamaged.

George Pernicano, 40, San Diego restaurant chain owner who has insured the handlebar mustache for that amount, was one of 18 passengers on the plane. He escaped any injury.

Says Jail No Place For Mental Patients

ROCKFORD, Ill. (AP) — If Sheriff Leonard A. Fridberg has his say, there'll be no padded cells in the Winnebago County Jail.

He spoke his piece after the grand jury recommended the sheriff seek an appropriation for at least two padded cells to facilitate handling of mental patients. He discussed the problem with County Judge Fred J. Kullberg.

"A jail is no place for those people," said Fridberg. "They should go to a hospital with a security section."

Sold Old Magazines To India As Good Will

BTLER, N. J. (AP) — Instead of throwing out old magazines, members of the Butler High School Honor Society are sending them overseas as "ambassadors" of the American way of life.

They are concentrating their mail on the so-called uncommitted nations such as India and Indonesia and have made several contacts with students there. Mailing costs are met by passing the hat in classrooms.

IDAHO FALLS, Idaho (AP) — A. E. Browning discovered why his daughter couldn't start the family car. Someone had stolen the generator.

STARS TO BE AT HERSHEY ARENA

HERSHEY, Pa. — Of the nineteen recording stars and groups making up the cast of "The Biggest Show of Stars For '58" at Hershey Sports Arena Friday evening, thirteen will be making their first appearance in the area.

The newcomers include Sam Cooke, George Hamilton IV, Frankie Avalon, the Silhouettes, the Royal Teens, the Crescendos, the Storey Sisters, the Monotones, the Playmates, Jimmy Reed, Jackie Wilson, Jimmy Dell and Bobby Marchan.

Sam Cooke is perhaps the best known of the newcomers, largely on the strength of his current hit, "You Send Me," which is rapidly nearing the two million copy figure.

In addition, the cast includes performers like Lavern Baker, Paul Anka, Clyde McPhatter, Harold Cromer and Paul Williams and His Orchestra, all of whom have appeared on the local stage in past editions of "The Biggest Show."

Of the returnees, Anka has the top seller of the moment, his waxing of "Let the Bells Keep Ringing" now well on its way to the million mark.

LARGE CROWD SEES COMEDY BY YORK CAST

A large crowd attended the presentation of "Gertie Goes Plain" in the social hall of Redeemer's United Church of Christ on Tuesday evening. The Pennsylvania Dutch comedy was presented by the young people of St. James' Lutheran Church, York, under the sponsorship of Redeemer's Ladies' Aid Society.

A brief business meeting of the Aid Society followed the play in charge of Mrs. Edward B. Geiman, president. It was decided that the Aid will sponsor a room at the Hanover unit of Homewood Church Home for the Aged. They decided to place the altar flowers in the church on Sunday, April 27, in memory of deceased members of the society. A note of thanks was read from Mrs. Richard M. Phreaner. It was announced that the recent Easter market was a big success. Reports were heard from Mrs. Donald C. Arbogast, secretary, and Mrs. Paul F. Crabbs, treasurer. Mrs. Calvin M. Sentz Sr., Mrs. Wilbur A. Bankert and Miss Blanche Troxell were appointed to serve as hostesses at the next meeting on Tuesday, May 13, in the church social hall.

WSCS Elects

Election of officers took place at the monthly meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of Centenary Methodist Church on Tuesday evening at the church. Results of the election follow: President, Mrs. Bertha Shull; vice president, Mrs. Alice Yohn; secretary, Mrs. Edith Hanlon; assistant secretary, Mrs. Mary Miller; treasurer, Mrs. Mary Byers; assistant treasurer, Mrs. Esther Harner. The nominating committee includes Mrs. Evelyn Brown, Mrs. Jeannette Weibley and Mrs. Grace Harner.

Eighteen members and one visitor were in attendance and the opening devotions were in charge of Mrs. Janie Yates, who also gave a report on the book "Disciples to Such a God." Birthdays of Mrs. Carrie Byers, Mrs. Charlotte Byers and Mrs. Grace Harner were noted. The guess package, given by Mrs. Jean Harner, was won by Mrs. Lottie Mellett. At the close of the business, refreshments were served by Mrs. Mary Miller, Mrs. Bertha Shull and Mrs. Dorothy Ruggles.

An auction will be held in connection with the next meeting of the WSCS on Tuesday, May 13. Members of the New Oxford WSCS will be invited guests. The hostess committee consists of Mrs. Helen Barton, Mrs. Lottie Mellett, Mrs.

Churchill Cancels United States Visit

LONDON (U.P.) — Sir Winston Churchill, still recovering from an attack of pneumonia and pleurisy last month, has canceled his trip to the United States.

The 83-year-old statesman's secretary said last night Churchill informed President Eisenhower "with much regret he has felt obliged to cancel his visit."

Churchill and his wife were to have gone to the United States late this month. He returned from the French Riviera last week and is now at his country home in Kent.

Carpet Traffic Paths Removed

Do you have a traffic path? It's that bare, down section of carpet that has received the heaviest wear.

To preserve the "new all over" look, these traffic paths must be eliminated, so apply Blue Lustre carpet cleaner with an easy to use long handle brush. The brush will spring out fresh and bright with the nap open and fluffy to blend with the unsoiled sections of your carpet.

One-half gallon of Blue Lustre cleans three 9 x 12 rugs.

EASTER SUNDAY SHOW ON TV IS GIVEN PRAISE

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP) — A television viewer must be grateful for the smallest gifts these days in the present wasteland of giveaways, Westerns and what-have-you.

Thus one must be thankful to NBC-TV for contributing an hour to "This Prisoner Barabbas" and not quibble that it had to fall in the unsponsored time available at 1 p.m. on Easter Sunday when relatively few viewers could see it.

"This Prisoner Barabbas" by Henry Denker was an outstanding religious drama about the thief Barabbas whose life was spared when Jesus was crucified. Haunted by guilt, desiring to square the debt he felt he owed, Barabbas worked his way to an understanding of true religious faith.

Superior Performance

Richard Kiley gave a moving performance as Barabbas. He was supported by an excellent cast of whom Robert Emhardt was outstanding. The drama, sponsored by the National Council of Churches of Christ in America, was superbly produced.

"This Prisoner Barabbas" was superior in concept and presentation to most of the dramas seen on the big nighttime dramatic shows, which are so fearful of religious themes. It's regrettable that a larger audience could not see it.

Beautiful Newcomer

It's a great joy to observe Christopher Fry's love affair with the English language. His "The Lady's Not for Burning," knowingly tempered by Walter Kerr for Omnibus (NBC-TV), was a pleasure to anyone who feels the language is more than a semaphoric means of communications.

What matter that the romantic comedy was played too fast for slow ears to catch every nuance of meaning? Christopher Plummer

Minister Killed In Headon Crash

DOYLESTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Two cars collided head-on on Tuesday while rounding a curve on Route 413, six miles east of here, killing a retired Methodist minister and injuring his son and a woman.

The victim was the Rev. Frederick W. McConnell, 84, of Woxall, Montgomery County. His son, Frederick Jr., 36, also of Woxall, and Mrs. Lillian Lovett of Wrightstown, Bucks County, were admitted to Doylestown Hospital.

Police said Frederick McConnell Jr. and Mrs. Lovett were driving was grand as a young man willing to be hung because he felt the world was coming unhinged. So, too, was a newcomer to television, Mary Ure, as a beautiful young woman accused of witchcraft who finally unhinged our hero.

NATHAN JOINED CATHOLIC FAITH

NEW YORK (AP) — George Jean Nathan, caustic drama critic who once described those who believed in a hereafter as "aboriginal," died a member of the Roman Catholic faith.

A sharp-tongued iconoclast who prided himself on being a hedonist most of his life, Nathan was baptized a Roman Catholic Oct. 9, 1957, it was learned shortly after he died Tuesday at 76. He had been ill two years.

Nathan received the last rites of the church Friday from the Rev. Charles McManus of St. Patrick's Cathedral, the priest who had given him instructions and baptized him at his hotel apartment last October.

Succeeds Faust At Chambersburg

CHAMBERSBURG, Pa. (AP) — Dr. Edson B. Powell, administrative assistant of the Chambersburg School District, was elected superintendent Tuesday night by the Chambersburg School Board at a salary of $10,000.

Dr. Powell was named to succeed Dr. J. Frank Faust, who is retiring as superintendent on June 30 after having held the post of 18 years.

James K. Gibboney, Chambersburg, was elected superintendent of Franklin County schools at $10,000. He succeeds Thomas W.

Msgr. McGinley came to New York Monday to be with Nathan, remained overnight when it became apparent that Nathan was sinking and also administered the last rites of the church.

Plan To Modernize Motor Vehicle Law

HARRISBURG (AP) — A public hearing on a plan to modernize Pennsylvania's motor vehicle laws will be held here April 28 by the Joint State Government Commission, research arm of the Legislature.

Chairman Baker Royer (R-Lancaster) said on Tuesday a study is underway to draft a single law covering the vehicle code, tractor code, safety responsibility act and similar statutes.

"Prior to final formulation of its report and recommendations, the commission has decided to take cognizance of evidence and suggestions which interested citizens and citizens' groups may wish to present," Royer said.

He is suffering from a stroke when he was picked up. He is still in Chester County Hospital.

Henry said his investigation disclosed no evidence of mistreatment by the troopers. The State Justice Department, which made a separate investigation of the incident, also had cleared the two men.

Heyburn, independent candidate for the Republican senatorial nomination and former state treasurer and auditor general, was found to

Servants And Problems Plentiful For American Housekeeper In Johannesburg

EDITOR'S NOTE: Agnes Heinzerling is the wife of Lynn Heinzerling, chief of the Johannesburg, South Africa, bureau of The Associated Press. In the story below, she tells what it's like to keep house in a city that's only a dot on a map for most Americans.

By AGNES HEINZERLING

JOHANNESBURG (AP) — This is supposed to be the housewife's paradise — a place where servants are plentiful and cheap and you can drop everything to gad around and attend 12 a.m. teas. But I am beginning to wonder. When we rented a furnished, ranch-type house in a Johannesburg suburb, Solomon and Johannes came into our lives. They came with the house although their wages and upkeep are not included in the rent. They are Africans of the Mopedi tribe and were described by the house owner as "one and a half boys" although both are over 21. Johannes is married.

They live in a one-room, brick structure on the property. Johannes is the "inside boy," who cleans the house, waits on tables and helps with the cooking. Solomon is the "half boy" in the owner's description. He works in the garden, shines the shoes, cleans the car and helps with the dishes.

Earns $16 A Month
Johannes earns 16 dollars a month and his room and board. Solomon makes 12 dollars a month, room and board. They are hard-working and cheerful, but mystified by modern appliances. If the cleaner is to be used, we must do it ourselves.

There is a lot of talk about burglars in this city. You don't put out the dog and lock the door here. You lock the door, keep the dog inside and turn on the burglar alarm. The burglar alarm is a buzzer in the bedroom which sounds ominously whenever any window or door in the house is opened. And, in our house, the routine is to lock not only the outside doors, but all doors leading even remotely into the sleeping quarters.

Knocks On Window
Once this ritual is completed, not even Johannes or Solomon can get to the house. So at 6:30 a.m., Johannes knocks on the bedroom window. The "master" then goes and unlocks the kitchen door. Johannes starts the coal fire to heat the bath water and makes the early morning tea.

From years of practice, Johannes and Solomon immediately began referring to my husband and my 12-year-old son, Larry, as "Master" — "Yes, Master," "No, Master." We are gradually persuading them to change this to private schools are said to be excellent, although cramped to the doors. We were able to find a private school within a bicycle ride of our home and Larry is very happy as the 45th member of his class there.

Received A "Caning"

He did cause some consternation when he came home one day and reported he had received a "caning." In this country, the lash is still administered to convicted criminals in some cases and we had visions of a horrible scene. It developed, however, that Larry had been rapped across the knuckles "for playing the fool at sports."

Department stores cannot compare with those in the United States although there are some excellent shops here. There are store prices for comparable goods are higher than at home. But fruits and vegetables are cheaper.

Fruits And Vegetables

The change in diet has not been such as to cause any difficulties. Fresh fruits and vegetables are available in abundance. There is a wide range of canned goods. I miss mostly the cake mixes, laundry soaps and the frozen foods available at home.

Social life is sometimes a problem. The ladies here, with their housework and cleaning in the hands of thousands of African servants for better or worse, like to invite you to tea parties at 11 a.m. A favorite Sunday festivity

Items ranging from primitive war clubs to models of modern day guided missiles; rifles and muskets from matchlocks to those used in World War II; knives, sabers, cutlase, bayonets, relics of the Carlisle Indian Industrial School, maps and documents from the early days of Carlisle Barracks, and hundreds of other historic items are to be seen at the Hessian Guardhouse Museum at the Carlisle Barracks.

Open to the public free of charge every Wednesday and Sunday afternoon from one until five o'clock, the museum has attracted thousands of visitors from the 48 states and numerous foreign nations since its opening in April is cocktails from noon to 1 p.m. around somebody's tennis court or swimming pool.

Language is no barrier since English is spoken almost universally. The South Africans are warm-hearted, friendly people and mostly delighted to see American visitors. The Afrikaners especially see a great similarity between the "trek" of their forefathers and the westward push of our pioneers and react accordingly.

1946. During the past year, attendance totaled over 6,000.

Originally built as a powder magazine in 1777 by Hessian prisoners of war captured at the Battle of Trenton during the Revolutionary War, the building which houses the museum is the oldest of this historic installation, one of the nation's oldest active military posts. With walls of native limestone over 4 feet thick, the museum building consists of three large rooms and four small cells which were used to confine prisoners from the days of the Carlisle Indian Industrial School up until the 1930's.

The display scheme generally traces the evolution of weaponry, from the wooden war club used by South Seas natives, through Indian clubs, tomahawks, swords, pistols and rifles to present day firearms. Additionally visitors will find one room devoted to relics of the Carlisle Indian Industrial School, and another small room with a display of maps of Carlisle Barracks from its earliest times up to the present day.

CLOSE SHAVE

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) — A $50,000 mustache came through an airplane crash undamaged.

George Pernicano, 40, San Diego restaurant chain owner who has insured the handlebar mustache for that amount, was one of 18 passengers on the plane. He escaped any injury.

Says Jail No Place For Mental Patients

ROCKFORD, Ill. (AP) — If Sheriff Leonard A. Fridberg has his say, there'll be no padded cells in the Winnebago County jail.

He spoke his piece after the grand jury recommended the sheriff seek an appropriation for at least two padded cells to facilitate handling of mental patients. He discussed the problem with County Judge Fred J. Kulberg.

"A jail is no place for those people," said Fridberg. "They should go to a hospital with a security section."

Sold Old Magazines To India As Good Will

BTLE, N. J. (AP) — Instead of throwing out old magazines, members of the Butler High School Honor Society are sending them overseas as "ambassadors" of the American way of life.

They are concentrating their mail on the so-called uncommitted nations such as India and Indonesia and have made several contacts with students there. Mailing costs are met by passing the hat in classrooms.

IDAHO FALLS, Idaho (AP) — A. E. Browning discovered why his daughter couldn't start the family car. Someone had stolen the generator.

STARS TO BE AT HERSHEY ARENA

HERSHEY, Pa. — Of the nineteen recording stars and groups making up the cast of "The Biggest Show of Stars For '58" at Hershey Sports Arena Friday evening, thirteen will be making their first appearance in the area.

The newcomers include Sam Cooke, George Hamilton IV, Frankie Avalon, the Silhouettes, the Royal Teens, the Crescendos, the Storey Sisters, the Monotones, the Playmates, Jimmy Reed, Jackie Wilson, Jimmy Dell and Bobby Marchan.

Sam Cooke is perhaps the best known of the newcomers, largely on the strength of his current hit, "You Send Me," which is rapidly nearing the two million copy figure.

In addition, the cast includes performers like Lavern Baker, Paul Anka, Clyde McPhatter, Harold Cromer and Paul Williams and His Orchestra, all of whom have appeared on the local stage in past editions of "The Biggest Show."

Of the returnees, Anka has the top seller of the moment, his waxing of "Let the Bells Keep Ringing" now well on its way to the million mark.

Work On Deadly Poison For Cancer With Antidote Given In Time To Save Patient

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Researchers here are working on the idea of deliberately giving fatal doses of drugs or X-rays to knock out a patient's cancer and then saving his life with a potent biological antidote to the poison or radiation. The life-saving part of it already has worked in normal mice given deadly doses of a drug used to treat breast cancer and other solid types of malignancy.

Another researcher has transplanted cancers into mice, given them more than fatal doses of radiation and then snatched them from death with the potent anti-radiation substance.

Used On Mice
Investigators elsewhere have done the same thing with mice which developed spontaneous cancer.

The potentially great lifesaver is bone marrow. It was used here on the radiated mice by Dr. John J. Trentin of Baylor University Medical School and on lethally drugged mice by Dr. Arthur Kirschbaum of Baylor and the University of Texas M. D. Anderson Hospital.

Both physicians, who talked to science writers on the American Cancer Society's tour of research laboratories, did this with the idea of seeing how far they might go.

Wage Raise Bars Strike In Germany

DUESSELDORF, Germany (AP)—A strike of 200,000 West German steel workers was tentatively called off Wednesday when union leaders accepted a compromise wage hike equivalent to 2.6 cents.

The leaders agreed to put the compromise to a union vote Friday. Informants said members probably will accept.

Under the new offer actual hourly earnings will average 75.1 cents including premiums and fringe benefits. The average now is 72.5 cents and the union demanded 10 per cent raises.

MORE LETTERS SHOW LANA'S AFFAIR WAS TURNING COOL

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Was Lana Turner's love for Johnny Stompanato cooling months before her handsome underworld boy friend was knifed to death in the actress' home?

Her letters to the 32-year-old onetime bodyguard of ex-gambler Mickey Cohen imply that.

So does an interview with the owner of the hotel in Acapulco, Mexico, where Miss Turner and Stompanato vacationed for two months.

Police Satisfied

Police say they are satisfied with the story that the husky ex-Marine was stabbed to death last Friday by Miss Turner's daughter, Cheryl Crane, 14.

Cheryl told officers she plunged an eight-inch kitchen knife into Stompanato's stomach when he threatened to disfigure or kill her mother.

The latest batch of Miss Turner's letters to Stompanato, published in a copyright article in the Herald-Express, contained more torrid expressions of love and affection.

Used Separate Suites

But the letters—written last January from Europe—also contain statements such as:

"You must let me be alone in my 'own world' for a while to rest, think, rest, think. . . I'll know when the time is right, if it ever is to be again."

Stompanato later flew from California and met the actress in Europe, where she had finished making a movie. Then they flew to Acapulco.

This surprised Teddy Stauffer, former husband of actress Hedy Lamarr, who owns the plush Villa Vera in the Mexican resort where Miss Turner and Stompanato moved into separate suites.

"Scared To Go Back"

Stauffer said Miss Turner had written him in December saying: "It will be very strange to be by myself in Acapulco."

"I got the impression," Stauffer said in Acapulco, "that Lana had discovered that she had made a mistake in meeting the wrong fellow, and got herself into something difficult and possibly dangerous to get out of."

"It seemed like she was scared to go back to California," he added.

Probe Letter Theft
While Stompanato was being buried in his hometown of Woodstock, Ill., police here said they were investigating a reported burglary at Stompanato's apartment.

Detective Chief Thad Brown said a clerk at the apartment house reported a window of Stompanato's apartment had been jimmied early Saturday—a few hours after Stompanato was killed.

Apparently the only thing missing, Brown said, was a shaving kit from the bathroom. He said a maid told him that the kit had contained a packet of letters.

Cohen said he acquired the letters published in the Herald-Express before Stompanato's death. "But I didn't know what they were," said Cohen. He added he turned the letters over to the newspaper because he was angry with Miss Turner for claiming Stompanato was an "unwelcome guest."

Store's Hitching Posts Forgotten

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—The designers of a modern 18-acre shopping center in Lancaster forgot the hitching posts.

Almost anywhere else this omission would probably never have been considered. But the shopping center is in Amish country. Most Amish families travel by horse and buggy. They were inconvenienced through their inability to hitch.

Eager to correct the problem, the builders not only are installing hitching posts, but watering service for the horses in the summer.

SAYS UNITY IS FIRST NEED OF CHRISTIANITY

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—Church unity, an educated ministry and more stands on issues are the three chief needs of modern Christianity, say the deans of the Yale and Harvard divinity schools.

"The church needs more unity and integrity," said Dean Liston Pope of Yale. "The split into 200 different Protestant churches is self-contradictory."

Speaking for more education in the religious field, Dean Douglas Horton of Harvard said of his students: "We are trying to sensitize them so that they can think for themselves. Religion is not something to which you can close your mind."

Less Relevant Now

The third great need, said Pope, is "greater relevance to what is going on in the world. The church is much less relevant to social matters now than 40 years ago." Furthermore, he said, "the church too often doesn't speak out enough. It has become too timid on most of the great issues facing the world."

Dean Horton was here to deliver lectures at the 48th annual convocation of the Yale Divinity School. He and Pope made their statements in a joint interview.

Why the reluctance of Christianity to take stands?

In Ecumenical Movement

"The complexity of social issues is more clearly seen now than several years ago," said Horton. Things don't seem so clear-cut nowadays as men of 40 years ago used to think, he added.

Both deans, Congregationalists, are leaders in the ecumenical movement—a phrase that connotes both a world unity of churches and a world spread of Christianity.

Arlington Supt. Goes To Radnor Twp.

RADNOR, Pa. (AP)—By a vote of 9-0 the Radnor Twp. board of education last night formally confirmed the appointment of Dr. T. Edward Rutter as superintendent of schools.

Dr. Rutter, now superintendent of schools in Arlington, Va., succeeds H.K. Idelman who resigned last January.

Dr. Rutter who is 51 and holds a Ph.D. in education, was born in Pottstown, Pa., and was graduated from Franklin and Marshall College. The board gave him a four-year contract at an annual salary of $18,000.

HAROLD VAUGHN CAMPAIGNS FROM STATION WAGON

ALIQUIPPA, Pa. (P) — Every day—rain or shine—a husky 39-year-old resident of this Beaver County community climbs into his station wagon and heads for the nearest supermarket or street corner.

"I'm Harold J. Vaughn," he tells the first person he greets. "I'm running for the Republican nomination for governor. I'd appreciate your vote."

Vaughn, a political newcomer, figures the best way to reach the average citizen is through personal contact. So far his campaign has been restricted to Western Pennsylvania.

No one heard of Vaughn politically until he filed his nomination papers with the State Elections Bureau in Harrisburg. Why did he enter the race as a lone wolf?

"Do Something"
"The last two administrations have done nothing to improve the state," said Vaughn. "I'm an average citizen and feel it's about time somebody does something."

A typical day for Vaughn starts early and usually extends until late evening. There's no police escort or a blaring truck to announce his arrival. Vaughn's headquarters is his 1956 station wagon.

Outside of a painted GOP elephant lustily swinging a broom with the slogan "Sweep the State in '58," Vaughn carries no campaign literature. His chief weapons are a firm handshake and a big smile on his moon-shaped face.

He usually talks to small groups clustered outside of supermarkets, courthouses or on the street corner. Or he may stroll up and down the main street of a community talking with everybody. His talk is short, just like his crew-cut hair.

"I just tell them who I am and what I intend to do if elected," says Vaughn. "Voters are a lot smarter these days than some people give them credit for being."

Born of Scotch-Irish parents, Vaughn was graduated from Allegheny College in 1938 and entered the general contracting business. He was a Merchant Marine officer from 1943-46. He is married and the father of two sons. This is his first foray into politics and Vaughn vows that his own personal funds and donations from private citizens make up his financial backbone.

Six-Point Platform
Vaughn has announced a six point platform: opposition to the state income tax, extension of unemployment compensation to 45 weeks, more industry in Pennsylvania, increased teachers' salaries, long-range public works program and added park and recreational facilities.

Earnest, young and ambitious, Vaughn plans to cover each of the 67 counties in Pennsylvania. Starting next week he'll campaign in the central and eastern sections, returning just before the election to windup the campaign in his own back yard.

Woman Secretary Is Gagged, Robbed

BRISTOL, Pa. (P) — The secretary of an insurance agency says he was bound and gagged by a husky gunman who stole an estimated $1,550 from a desk drawer.

The secretary, Mrs. Dorothy Loessy, 40, of Bristol, told police it took her 20 minutes to attract the attention of a neighbor by banging the chair to which she was tied against a door.

She said she was alone in the Barrister Title Insurance Agency office yesterday when the robber, whom she described as about 35 and white, entered.

She said he also took $22 from her purse before leaving. Ronald Barrister, owner of the agency, gave the figure for the amount taken from the drawer.

Work On Deadly Poison For Cancer With Antidote Given In Time To Save Patient

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Researchers here are working on the idea of deliberately giving fatal doses of drugs or X-rays to knock out a patient's cancer and then saving his life with a potent biological antidote to the poison or radiation.

The life-saving part of it already has worked in normal mice given deadly doses of a drug used to treat breast cancer and other solid types of malignancy.

Used On Mice
Investigators elsewhere have done the same thing with mice which developed spontaneous cancer. The potentially great lifesaver is bone marrow. It was used here on the radiated mice by Dr. John J. Trentin of Baylor University Medical School and on lethally drugged mice by Dr. Arthur Kirschbaum of Baylor and the University of Texas M. D. Anderson Hospital.

Both physicians, who talked to science writers on the American Cancer Society's tour of research laboratories, did this with the idea of seeing how far they might go eventually with the same procedure in humans.

Very Poisonous
The drug is thio-tepa, which has been used with some success against human cancer but which is so poisonous that it cannot be given in large enough amounts to deliver what might be a knockout blow to malignancy. Its main undesirable effect is to destroy bone marrow, which is responsible for the production of blood cells.

Radiation also is a great weapon against cancer but it has to be carefully limited because of its bone marrow destroying ability. This is the principal way radiation from atom bombs and other sources destroys human and animal life.

Mice given the anticancer drug in large doses lived only 10 days if left untreated with the lifesaver. But those given injections of marrow from other mice have survived for two months and are in good health, Dr. Kirschbaum said.

Holdup Suspect Is Quizzed In Hospital

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Harry M. Schank Jr., 26, held in connection with a $3,500 Drexelbrook Inn holdup, will be given a further hearing April 30.

Shank allegedly admitted taking $919 last Feb. 27 from a drugstore and $450 worth of paint and other merchandise from a King of Prussia warehouse in nearby Radnor. He was questioned yesterday by Detective Leon Pitz at his bed in Philadelphia General Hospital.

Shank was taken to the hospital after being shot while fleeing a relative's home in Harrisburg three days after the March 24 Drexelbrook holdup.

MORE LETTERS SHOW LANA'S AFFAIR WAS TURNING COOL

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Was Lana Turner's love for Johnny Stompanato cooling months before her handsome underworld boyfriend was knifed to death in the actress' home?

Her letters to the 32-year-old onetime bodyguard of ex-gambler Mickey Cohen imply that.

So does an interview with the owner of the hotel in Acapulco, Mexico, where Miss Turner and Stompanato vacationed for two months.

Police Satisfied
Police say they are satisfied with the story that the husky ex-Marine was stabbed to death last Friday by Miss Turner's daughter, Cheryl Crane, 14.

Cheryl told officers she plunged an eight-inch kitchen knife into Stompanato's stomach when he threatened to disfigure or kill her mother.

The latest batch of Miss Turner's letters to Stompanato, published in a copyright article in the Herald-Express, contained more torrid expressions of love and affection.

Used Separate Suites
But the letters—written last January from Europe—also contain statements such as:

Stompanato later flew from California and met the actress in Europe, where she had finished making a movie. Then they flew to Acapulco.

This surprised Teddy Stauffer, former husband of actress Hedy Lamarr, who owns the plush Villa Vera in the Mexican resort where Miss Turner and Stompanato moved into separate suites.

"Scared To Go Back"
Stauffer said Miss Turner had written him in December saying:

"It will be very strange to be by myself in Acapulco." Stauffer said in Acapulco, "that Lana had discovered that she had made a mistake in meeting the wrong fellow, and got herself into something difficult and possibly dangerous to get out of."

"It seemed like she was scared to go back to California," he added.

Probe Letter Theft
While Stompanato was being buried in his hometown of Woodstock, Ill., police here said they were investigating a reported burglary at Stompanato's apartment.

Detective Chief Thad Brown said a clerk at the apartment house reported a window of Stompanato's apartment had been jimmied early Saturday—a few hours after Stompanato was killed.

Apparently the only thing missing, Brown said, was a shaving kit from the bathroom. He said a maid told him that the kit had contained a packet of letters.

Cohen said he acquired the letters published in the Herald-Express before Stompanato's death.

"But I didn't know what they were," said Cohen. He added he turned the letters over to the newspaper because he was angry with Miss Turner for claiming Stompanato was an "unwelcome guest."

Store's Hitching Posts Forgotten

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—The designers of a modern 18-acre shopping center in Lancaster forgot the hitching posts.

Almost anywhere else this omission would probably never have been considered. But the shopping center is in Amish country. Most Amish families travel by horse and buggy. They were inconvenienced through their inability to hitch.

Eager to correct the problem, the builders not only are installing hitching posts, but watering service for the horses in the summer.

SAYS UNITY IS FIRST NEED OF CHRISTIANITY

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—Church unity, an educated ministry and more stands on issues are the three chief needs of modern Christianity, say the deans of the Yale and Harvard divinity schools.

"The church needs more unity and integrity," said Dean Liston Pope of Yale. "The split into 200 different Protestant churches is self-contradictory."

Speaking for more education in the religious field, Dean Douglas Horton of Harvard said of his students: "We are trying to sensitize them so that they can think for themselves. Religion is not something to which you can close your mind."

Less Relevant Now
The third great need, said Pope, is "greater relevance to what is going on in the world. The church is much less relevant to social matters now than 40 years ago." Furthermore, he said, "the church too often doesn't speak out enough. It has become too timid on most of the great issues facing the world."

Dean Horton was here to deliver lectures at the 48th annual convocation of the Yale Divinity School. He and Pope made their statements in a joint interview.

Why the reluctance of Christianity to take stands?

In Ecumenical Movement
"The complexity of social issues is more clearly seen now than several years ago," said Horton. Things don't seem so clear-cut nowadays as men of 40 years ago used to think, he added.

Both deans, Congregationalists, are leaders in the ecumenical movement—a phrase that connotes both a world unity of churches and a world spread of Christianity.

Arlington Supt. Goes To Radnor Twp.

RADNOR, Pa. (AP)—By a vote of 9-0 the Radnor Twp. board of education last night formally confirmed the appointment of Dr. T. Edward Rutter as superintendent of schools.

Dr. Rutter, now superintendent of schools in Arlington, Va., succeeds H.K. Idelman who resigned last January.

Dr. Rutter who is 51 and holds a Ph.D. in education, was born in Potstown, Pa., and was graduated from Franklin and Marshall College. The board gave him a four-year contract at an annual salary of $18,000.

How many "vitamin pills" per bottle?

Some vitamin preparations seem like bargains. Lots of capsules per dollar. But that's not the way medications should be measured. The true measure is potency—how much active, beneficial ingredient per dollar. When you measure this way, you will find that the real "bargains" are in your registered pharmacy. Before you buy vitamin preparations from a nonprofessional source, check with your physician. It pays.

EASTER SUNDAY SHOW ON TV IS GIVEN PRAISE

By CHARLES MERCER
NEW YORK (AP) — A television viewer must be grateful for the smallest gifts these days in the present wasteland of giveaways, Westerns and what-have-you.
Thus one must be thankful to NBC-TV for contributing an hour to "This Prisoner Barabbas" and not quibble that it had to fall in the unsponsored time available at 1 p.m. on Easter Sunday when relatively few viewers could see it.
"This Prisoner Barabbas" by Henry Denker was an outstanding religious drama about the thief Barabbas whose life was spared when Jesus was crucified. Haunted by guilt, desiring to square the debt he felt he owed, Barabbas worked his way to an understanding of true religious faith.

Superior Performance
Richard Kiley gave a moving performance as Barabbas. He was supported by an excellent cast of whom Robert Emhardt was outstanding. The drama, sponsored by the National Council of Churches of Christ in America, was superbly produced.
"This Prisoner Barabbas" was superior in concept and presentation to most of the dramas seen on the big nighttime dramatic shows, which are so fearful of religious themes. It's regrettable that a larger audience could not see it.
Beautiful Newcomer
It's a great joy to observe Christopher Fry's love affair with the English language. His "The Lady's Not for Burning," knowingly tempered by Walter Kerr for Omnibus (NBC-TV), was a pleasure to anyone who feels the language is more than a semaphoric means of communications.
What matter that the romantic comedy was played too fast for slow ears to catch every nuance of meaning? Christopher Plummer

Minister Killed In Headon Crash

DOYLESTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Two cars collided head-on on Tuesday while rounding a curve on Route 413, six miles east of here, killing a retired Methodist minister and injuring his son and a woman.
The victim was the Rev. Frederick W. McConnell, 84, of Woxall, Montgomery County. His son, Frederick Jr., 36, also of Woxall, and Mrs. Lillian Lovett of Wrightstown, Bucks County, were admitted to Doylestown Hospital.
Police said Frederick McConnell Jr. and Mrs. Lovett were driving

NATHAN JOINED CATHOLIC FAITH

NEW YORK (AP) — George Jean Nathan, caustic drama critic who once described those who believed in a hereafter as "aboriginal," died a member of the Roman Catholic faith.
A sharp-tongued iconoclast who prided himself on being a hedonist most of his life, Nathan was baptized a Roman Catholic Oct. 9, 1957, it was learned shortly after he died Tuesday at 76. He had been ill two years.
Nathan received the last rites of the church Friday from the Rev. Charles McManus of St. Patrick's Cathedral, the priest who had given him instructions and baptized him at his hotel apartment last October.
A Solemn Requiem Mass will be offered this week at St. Patrick's Cathedral.
The former Julie Haydon, ex-actress whom he married in 1955 at the age of 73, was received into the Catholic Church a month after her husband's baptism.
Nathan's parents were both partly Jewish but his mother was a practicing Catholic, a close associate said.
A factor in the conversion was reportedly Nathan's lifelong friendship with the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Charles B. McGinley, pastor of the Church of the Holy Child in

Succeeds Faust At Chambersburg

CHAMBERSBURG, Pa. (AP) — Dr. Edson B. Powell, administrative assistant of the Chambersburg School District, was elected superintendent Tuesday night by the Chambersburg School Board at a salary of $10,000.
Dr. Powell was named to succeed Dr. J. Frank Faust, who is retiring as superintendent on June 30 after having held the post of 18 years.
James K. Gibboney, Chambersburg, was elected superintendent of Franklin County schools at $10,000. He succeeds Thomas W. Philadelphia.
Msgr. McGinley came to New York Monday to be with Nathan, remained overnight when it became apparent that Nathan was sinking and also administered the last rites of the church.

Plan To Modernize Motor Vehicle Law

HARRISBURG (AP) — A public hearing on a plan to modernize Pennsylvania's motor vehicle laws will be held here April 28 by the Joint State Government Commission, research arm of the Legislature.
Chairman Baker Royer (R-Lancaster) said on Tuesday a study is underway to draft a single law covering the vehicle code, tractor code, safety responsibility act and similar statutes.
"Prior to final formulation of its report and recommendations, the commission has decided to take cognizance of evidence and suggestions which interested citizens and citizens' groups may wish to present," Royer said.

CLEAR POLICE OF HEYBURN CHARGE

HARRISBURG (AP) — Two state troopers have been cleared by state police Commissioner Col. E. J. Henry of charges they mistreated Weldon B. Heyburn when they picked him up for allegedly passing a stopped school bus March 19.
Henry said his investigation disclosed no evidence of mistreatment by the troopers. The State Justice Department, which made a separate investigation of the incident, also had cleared the two men.
Heyburn, independent candidate for the Republican senatorial nomination and former state treasurer and auditor general, was found to

ing of true religious faith.
Superior Performance
Richard Kiley gave a moving performance as Barabbas. He was supported by an excellent cast of whom Robert Emhardt was outstanding. The drama, sponsored by the National Council of Churches of Christ in America, was superbly produced.
"This Prisoner Barabbas" was superior in concept and presentation to most of the dramas seen on the big nighttime dramatic shows, which are so fearful of religious themes. It's regrettable that a larger audience could not see it.
Beautiful Newcomer
It's a great joy to observe Christopher Fry's love affair with the English language. His "The Lady's Not for Burning," knowingly tempered by Walter Kerr for Omnibus (NBC-TV), was a pleasure to anyone who feels the language is more than a semaphoric means of communications.
What matter that the romantic comedy was played too fast for slow ears to catch every nuance of meaning? Christopher Plummer

Father Should Be The Boss Even In All-Girl Household

By Vivian Brown
AF Newfeatures Writer

Dad should be boss of the household even if he's hopelessly outnumbered, says movie and TV star Rosemary DeCamp, the mother of four girls.

"Mother should not take over complete supervision of girls," she says. "You don't want to make little pinaflore types out of them, just because they don't have brothers to teach them about toads and spiders."

Miss DeCamp, wife of Judge John Shidler of Los Angeles, goes on:

"In our house Dad's word is law, just as it is in the courtroom. I'll help make our girls better wives. We are determined that our girls grow up fearlessly, too, not in prissy, sheltered fashion."

The girls, Margaret 14, Martha 10, Valerie 9 and Anita Louise 5, are outdoor types "but not tomboys."

"They have a treehouse 30 feet up with a magnificent view of the Pacific Ocean, and get as much fun out of it as boys."

Have Several Pets

"They have pets — an iguana, a lizard-like animal that lives on hibiscus and is kept in a cage; dogs, cats, lovebirds. We are on the verge of adopting a raccoon to replace an old friend, a chinchilla, that we finally hitched to a zoo."

Miss DeCamp spends three days a week with the Bob Cummings TV show, but takes a normal attitude toward the home and doesn't spoil the girls because they have a working mother. You can't arrive at a perfect formula for family happiness without trial and error, she says. But one day you find the prescription for your own problems.

"It's not easy to be a parent. You can't say 'I'm boss, and you do as I say' to your children. There is much more to the job."

Happiness In Home

Happiness in a home may be achieved in little ways like these, she points out:

1. If your youngster begins to tell you something, let her finish

ACTS AS WOMAN PSYCHOLOGIST IN AVIATION

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — As aircraft go higher, faster and farther, will trail man — who hasn't changed much physically in thousands of years — have to stay behind?

"Not so long as we can adapt machines to man's capabilities," says Dorothy Johnston, who, in her early 30s, quit counseling college students to become one of the few women psychologists in the aviation industry.

"Besides, we don't really know what man's maximum capabilities are... in certain areas."

Working as a team, she and fellow psychologists at North American Aviation here seek to help engineers by trying to find answers to such questions as:

How much must a flier push, pull, reach and stretch while flying this aircraft? Is this control placed so a man with short arms can reach it but a man with long arms won't be cramped? In an emergency, can this item be reached quickly and operated easily?

"We want to know, so far as possible, before the conditions arise in actual flight," Miss Johnston says.

"We use wooden mock-ups of the aircraft under study, and place people — not necessarily fliers — in them to test proposed designs. We talk with test pilots. And once the equipment is in use, we ask the men who use it how they like it."

Did she have any idea psychology would lead to something like this?

"No," she says. "My interest in industrial psychology crystallized when I was counseling at Florida State University, and took a job at Douglas Aircraft in Tulsa, Okla."

"I got in on the human factors research there and became very interested. Then I came here in 1957."

Before deciding to leave the campus, Miss Johnston had earned her undergraduate degree at the University of Arkansas and her master's at the University of Denver, while counseling at the University of Colorado School of Nursing.

But if this new field is a surprise, it's also very much a thrill, she says:

"I'm not a flier, but I have a license to fly. I'm not a pilot, but I have a license to fly."

"I'm not a pilot, but I have a license to fly. I'm not a pilot, but I have a license to fly."

HAROLD VAUGHN CAMPAIGNS FROM STATION WAGON

ALIQUIPPA, Pa. (AP) — Every day—rain or shine—a husky 39-year-old resident of this Beaver County community climbs into his station wagon and heads for the nearest supermarket or street corner.

"I'm Harold J. Vaughn," he tells the first person he greets. "I'm running for the Republican nomination for governor. I'd appreciate your vote."

Vaughn, a political newcomer, figures the best way to reach the average citizen is through personal contact. So far his campaign has been restricted to Western Pennsylvania.

No one heard of Vaughn politically until he filed his nomination papers with the State Elections Bureau in Harrisburg. Why did he enter the race as lone wolf?

"Do Something"

"The last two administrations have done nothing to improve the state," said Vaughn. "I'm an average citizen and feel it's about time somebody does something."

Outside of a painted GOP elephant lustily swinging a broom with the slogan "Sweep the State in '58," Vaughn carries no campaign literature. His chief weapons are a firm handshake and a big smile on his moon-shaped face.

He usually talks to small groups clustered outside of supermarkets, courthouses or on the street corner. Or he may stroll up and down the main street of a community talking with everybody. His talk is short, just like his crew-cut hair.

"I just tell them who I am and what I intend to do if elected," says Vaughn. "Voters are a lot smarter these days than some people give them credit for being."

Born of Scotch-Irish parents, Vaughn was graduated from Allegheny College in 1938 and entered the general contracting business. He was a Merchant Marine officer from 1943-46. He is married and the father of two sons.

This is his first fling at politics and Vaughn vows that his own personal funds and donations from private citizens make up his financial backbone.

Six-Point Platform

Vaughn has announced a six point platform: opposition to the state income tax, extension of unemployment compensation to 45 weeks, more industry in Pennsylvania, increased teachers' salaries, long-range public works program and added park and recreational facilities.

Earnest, young and ambitious, Vaughn plans to cover each of the 67 counties in Pennsylvania. Starting next week he'll campaign in the central and eastern sections, returning just before the election to windup the campaign in his own back yard.

Woman Secretary Is Gagged, Robbed

BRISTOL, Pa. (AP) — The secretary of an insurance agency says he was bound and gagged by a husky gunman who stole an estimated $1,550 from a desk drawer.

The secretary, Mrs. Dorothy Loecker, 40, of Bristol, told police it took her 20 minutes to attract the attention of a neighbor by banging the chair to which she was tied against a door.

She said she was alone in the Bristol Title Insurance Agency office yesterday when the robber, whom she described as about 35 and white, entered.

She said he also took $22 from her purse before leaving. Ronald Barker, owner of the agency, gave her the key to the amount taken from the drawer.
